Election Post Goes To Will

GOP Chairman Endorsed

Attorney James V. Will, chairman of the Richland county Republican central committee, last night was endorsed for appointment to the county board of elections to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of George Williams of Shelby.

Will was endorsed by the county GOP executive committee. Formal appointment is expected to be made by the secretary of state.

Will won the endorsement over Harry Maxwell of Lexington. The board term will expire in February, 1950. The other Republican member of the election board is Earl A. McFarland. Democratic members are Mrs. Marie Bell, Mansfield, and Charles Innes, Butler.

Will's pay as a board member will be $79.16 a month.

The executive committee chose Carl R. Daugherty of Shelby to succeed Mr. Williams as a member of the Republican central committee.

ACTION DEFERRED

Ralph M. Hardy, executive committee chairman, said no action was taken to fill the managerial position at the Aid for the Aged office, left vacant recently by the resignation of William Grubaugh. Hardy said action was postponed because "all the applicants were over 60 years of age."

Three Mansfielders have applied for the job. Hardy said their applications would be forwarded to the Columbus office of the Aid for the Aged for a decision on eligibility. Applicants are Frank A. Schlemmer, 665 McPherson street; Wilford L. Baughman, 536 South Main street; and Harry E. Crooks, 326 West Third street.

The Aid for Aged office is now being managed temporarily by Howard Neuman, an investigator for the department.

Lewis Bids For Pension

WASHINGTON —(AP)—John L. Lewis today offered to keep the coal miners on the job after July 1—when their present contract expires—if mine operators agree to his $100 a month pension plan.

Negotiations for a new contract began last Monday under order of Justice T. Alan Goldsborough, but there is doubt whether a new agreement can be reached by July 1.

Lewis issued a statement saying he would recommend to the 200-man policy committee of the UMW that the mines be kept in operation.

The policy committee never has overruled him.

Mine operators were about to make a contract offer. They have been working on one for 48 hours.

The miners get a vacation period beginning June 25 and ending July 5.

Lewis said that the union negotiating committee would recommend keeping the mines in operation under the present contract after July 6. "With the understanding that any changes or improvements negotiated, affecting wages or conditions of employment, will be made retroactive to July 1."

Youngstown Has New Payroll Tax

YOUNGSTOWN —(INS)— Starting July 1, Youngstowners will pay .3 per cent of every dollar they earn into the city treasury.

The 3-mill income tax levy finally was passed yesterday by city council after months of wrangling over the amount and the job of setting up the collection machinery is expected to get underway immediately.

The tax will be paid by all persons either living or working in Youngstown, with no exceptions.

Sewage Turns Ritter's Run Into Foul-Smelling Stream

City Cites Lack of Equipment

Residents of Area Protest Dumping

By SHELDON BINN

The combination of a hamstringing contract for rental of construction equipment and the lack of cooperation by the public has turned Ritter's Run into a polluted, foul-smelling stream.

Although there have been reports of pollution of the stream at intervals during the past five or six years, the dry weather last week brought the problem to a head. Persons living near the creek said the stream started giving off an unpleasant odor.

The once clear playground for generations of Mansfielders, has become a dumping ground for scores of thoughtless persons. The pollution is bringing protest from residents in the area.

Direct cause of the odor was raw sewage being spilled into the stream from a broken sewer tile. The tile had been broken since last fall when the stream undercut a storm sewer which fell on the sanitary sewer pipe and broke it.

City officials were aware of the break last year, but could not have it fixed immediately because the city does not have the needed construction equipment. It does have a contract with the R. O. Darling company for rental of such equipment, but since the Darling company is swamped with other work, the equipment is not always available for the city's use.

The broken sanitary sewer did not cause any trouble last year or early this year, because the stream was moving fast enough to dilute the sewage and carry it away.

STREAM SLUGGISH

It did not rain from May 21 until June 4 however, and the stream

'Girl Friend' Sues Meyers

NEW YORK — (UP) — The former secretary of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers sued him for $250,000 today charging that he defamed her character by telling a Senate war investigating committee that she was his "girl friend."

Mrs. Mildred R. Lamarre, of Dayton, O., brought suit in federal district court against the former deputy chief of army air force procurement. Meyers now is serving a jail sentence of from 20 months to five years for perjury during the Senate war fraud hearings.

The suite quoted several "defamatory" statements made by Meyers while testifying about his relations with Mrs. Lamarre's husband, Bleriot, the $51.50-a-week dummy president of Meyers' Aviation Electric corporation.

"I'll tell you how I came to set up Aviation Electric for Bleriot Lamarre," the suit quoted Meyers. "His wife and I had an affair over a period of eight years. You know how it is. I make no apology for sleeping with the gal —you know how those things are —she used to be a pretty girl in those days."

Temperature To Climb

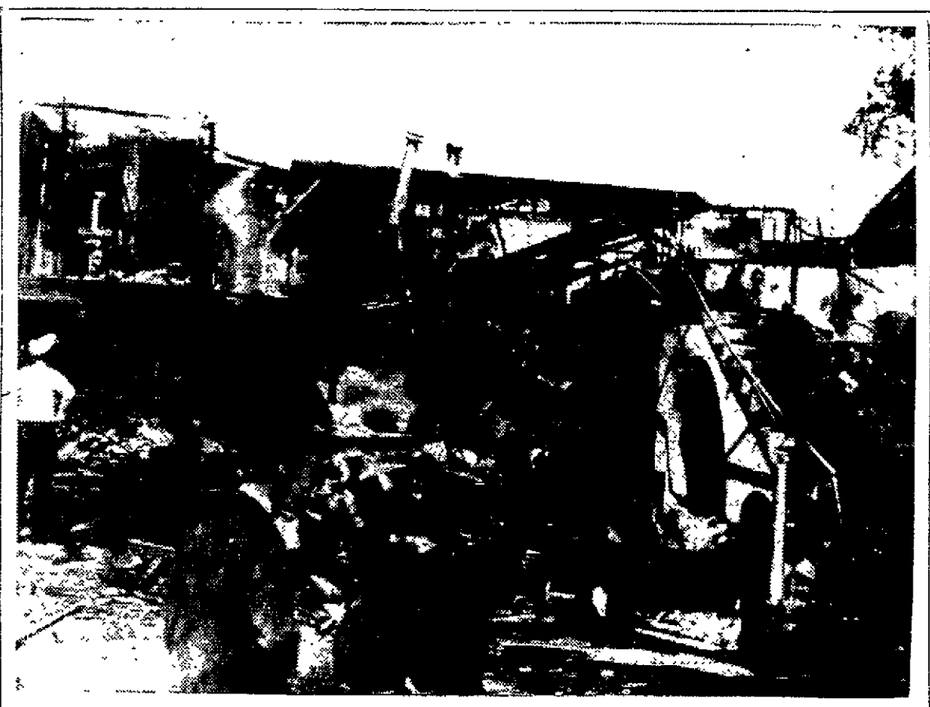
Summer weather will return tomorrow following three days of intermittent showers and chilly temperatures, the weatherman forecast today.

Showers yesterday afternoon added .15 of an inch of rain to precipitation in Mansfield, bringing the total to nearly three-fourths of an inch since Saturday.

The mercury showed little variance in Mansfield yesterday and last night. The high was 65 and the low 51. It was hot yesterday in the southwest and northwest. Fort Worth, Texas, reported 100 degrees and Bismarck, N. D., had a reading of 87.

BUS DRIVERS STRIKE

LORAIN —(UP)— Seventy drivers and maintenance men of the Employes Transit Line, Inc., serving Lorain and nearby Amherst, went on strike early today after the company refused their demands for a 30-cent wage increase.



BLAST WRECKS SWANKY COUNTRY CLUB—A fireman, foreground, points to a spot where it is believed an explosion which wrecked the fashionable Hillcrest Country club at Los Angeles, originated during installation of a new gas line. The blast, followed by fire, killed one, injured at least five yesterday. The explosion occurred in a locker room, and scattered lockers in a semi-circle for 50 feet. The roof blew off the clubhouse and a fire virtually gutted it despite the efforts of 12 fire-fighting companies.

J. P. Snapp Dies At 76

Fall Blamed In Death Of Remy Official

Joseph P. Snapp, 76, of 138 Vennum avenue, treasurer of the Albert F. Remy company, died at General hospital Tuesday at 4 p. m. after a brief illness.

Death resulted from injuries received in a fall at his office Monday, according to members of the family.

Mr. Snapp was born in San Francisco Sept. 21, 1871, coming to Mansfield about 54 years ago. He had been affiliated with the Albert F. Remy company for 51 years. He was secretary to the Mansfield chapter of the United Commercial Travelers, a charter member of the Amima club, and a member of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Snapp had been active both in church and civic affairs.

He is survived by his wife, Olive; one daughter, Mrs. J. Harry Craig, of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Whitaker of Reno, Nev.; and Mrs. Lawrence Farrell of Los Angeles, Calif.

The body is at the Jones Memorial, where friends may call. Services will be held there Friday at 2 p. m., in charge of Rev. David N. Roller. Interment will be in the Mansfield mausoleum.

Reds Rebuild Murmansk

STOCKHOLM — (UP) — The Swedish newspaper Tidningen said today that the Russians are rebuilding the famous wartime port of Murmansk, high above the Arctic circle, into a Russian naval stronghold and probably Europe's biggest naval base.

Military equipment from the former German naval base of Wilhelmshaven is being moved to Murmansk, the Swedish paper said in a dispatch quoting Moscow papers.

Murmansk is being rebuilt as part of a Russian program to open up the Arctic ship route across the top of the world from Murmansk to the Chuckchee peninsula, which borders on the Bering strait opposite Alaska, the paper said.

The route is being re-established by the Soviet Marine corps, the paper said, so rich gold, silver, lead and zinc deposits in the Chuckchee peninsula can be exploited.

Eagle Fight Cuts Lights

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. —(AP)— A battle between two eagles plunged half a dozen small northern Arizona communities into darkness.

Arizona Power company lineman reported yesterday the Eagles apparently had fought over the body of a young goat while perched on the cross-arm of a pole carrying a 44,000-volt wire.

Dem Critics Snipe At President

Truman's Tour Adds To Party Rumblings

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL—(UP)—Another state Democratic leader heaped criticism upon President Truman's western tour today, adding to the party rumblings the chief executive left behind him in Montana and Nebraska.

Lew Wallace, Democratic nominee for governor of Oregon and a national Democratic committeeman, said he was "sick and tired" of the way Mr. Truman's assistants were handling arrangements for his visit to Oregon.

The president's special train was due in Portland tomorrow when Mr. Truman will tour the flooded area and confer with flood relief officials.

Mr. Truman and his party travelled through Washington today after an overnight trip from Butte, Mont., to Spokane. Included on today's itinerary was an inspection tour of Grand Coulee dam.

Despite criticism of his trip by Montana State Democratic Chairman Lester H. Loble, Mr. Truman got the best reception of his cross-country tour at Butte last night.

In an extemporaneous address at the high school stadium last night, the president blamed the Republican Congress for the country's ills.

He reminded his audience that he had asked for the proper controls to combat rising prices, "but I don't think I will get them."

"Instead of going to Philadelphia (for the Republican national convention) Congress should stay in Washington until they get these things done," he said.

Dedication Causes Embarrassing Error

CAREY, Ind.—(AP)—President Truman found himself in an embarrassing spot yesterday when he dedicated an airfield to a boy killed in the war, only to learn that it was a girl killed in a mishap at home.

Mr. Truman said he was happy to be able to present a dedication wreath to the parents of a boy who died that liberty might live. The President was told of the error, and said: "Well, I congratulate you. It was for the welfare of the country that she did it."

Wilma Coates, 16, was killed in a plane crash a year ago in February. Mr. Truman shook hands with the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Coates, and said he was sorry for his mistake.

"Oh, that's all right," Mrs. Coates said.

Bribe Story Will Be Told to Jury

COLUMBUS—(UP)—Dan Diloreto, Ravenna war veteran who charged he was solicited for a $3,000 bribe by a state liquor department inspector, has been subpoenaed to appear before the Franklin county grand jury on Thursday.

County Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett said Diloreto will be asked to repeat his story that an inspector asked for the bribe after he filed an application for a night club permit.

Police Egged On To Inspect Hen

BANGOR, Me. —(AP)— Police have to draw the line somewhere.

The Bangor force thought the time had come yesterday. A woman telephoned that a setting hen had deserted its eggs and "can an inspector come out and investigate?"

Family Frown for Princess Denied

Parents OK Royal Match

ATHENS —(AP)— A spokesman for ex-King Mihai (Michael) of Romania said today Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma is being married here tomorrow with the full consent and agreement of her parents.

He declared that Anne's uncle, Prince Xavier of Bourbon-Parma, spoke without authority in Paris Monday when he said the Bourbon-Parma family did not approve of Anne's marriage to Mihai.

"Anne has a mother and father with whose full consent and agreement the wedding is going to take place," the spokesman said.

"The reason Xavier made this statement," he added, "is because he is under the complete domination of the Catholic church and is most anxious to protect his position."

(Xavier is a pretender to the Spanish throne)

A dispensation was sought from the Pope, but reportedly refused because of Mihai's insistence that any children of the union be brought up in his faith—the Greek Orthodox. The wedding ceremony, tomorrow noon, will be performed in that rite, by Archbishop Damaskinos.

Mihai's spokesman said today Anne "has no intentions" of being converted to the Greek Orthodox church. An earlier announcement said children born of their union would be raised in the Greek Orthodox faith.

Voters Back Income Tax In Columbus

Revenue Measure Given Approval

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Speaking with ballots, Columbus voters have endorsed the remedy—a municipal income tax—prescribed for the city's anemic treasury.

In a special referendum, voters yesterday approved a one half of one per cent payroll-income tax 34,190 to 24,003.

Commenting on the favorable majority, Mayor James A. Rhodes said it would shoot new pep into the city's financial arteries and establish Columbus "as a pay-as-you-go metropolitan city."

Columbus was the second Ohio city to approve such a tax. Toledo voters backed a similar levy two years ago by a 57 per cent favorable vote.

Columbus adopted its tax six months ago. The levy netted $528,000 the first three months.

Yesterday's special election marked the eighth time in 14 years that Columbus residents were asked to vote additional taxes on themselves. The seven previous attempts—all calling for higher real estate taxes—failed.

The Ohio CIO council said today it planned court action to test constitutionality of the income tax.

William J. Lavelle, executive secretary of the state CIO organization, said a suit will be filed challenging validity of the levy. He said he was not prepared to say where or when the suit will be filed pending conference with CIO legal counsel.

Legal experts have expressed doubt that a suit could be filed directly in the state supreme court. A test of the validity of the tax, therefore, apparently will have to work its way up through the lower courts before a final decision can be obtained.

Fire Fighters Catch Blaze On 4th Try

DECATUR, Ill.—(AP)—Firemen spent ten minutes chasing a fire before they put it out last night. They made it on the fourth try.

The fire was in an empty freight car on an Illinois Central train. By the time the fire engine got to an intersection where the train had been, it had moved on.

The firemen backtracked a block, sped two blocks parallel to the tracks, and dashed down another side street to the railroad intersection.

By the time they got there, the burning car had passed that point.

They made two more similar trips before they caught up with the fire.

The train's crew, meanwhile knew of the blaze, but didn't know the fire engine was chasing the train. They had kept the train moving, looking for a side street with a fire hydrant.

The freight car's sides were burned up. The firemen were a little hot, too.

Czechs Adopt Constitution

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia —(AP) The new Czech constitution, which President Eduard Benes refused to sign, becomes the law of the land today.

A government announcement to this effect did not say by what executive signature the document was made valid.

The presumption is that Communist Premier Klement Gottwald signed it after Benes handed in his resignation Monday. Gottwald is considered the leading candidate to succeed Benes. Parliament will choose the new president Monday.

MARRIAGE ON ROCKS

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Elsie Janis, veteran actress of stage and screen, announces that she and her actor-husband, Gilbert Wilson, are separating. Miss Janis, 58, said yesterday she is not planning divorce action. She and Wilson, 42, were married in 1932.

Senators Kept Busy On Draft

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Weary senators embroiled in a new draft-civil rights fight today faced their third night session in a drive to speed the measure to an uncertain House fate.

Called together again an hour earlier than usual, they rejected an amendment sponsored by Senators Russell (D-Ga) and Maybank (D-SC) which would let enlisted men serve in segregated units upon request.

In its second overtime session last night, the Senate adopted an amendment to limit the selective service law to two years instead of five as originally proposed.

Earlier it approved a provision to permit 25,000 aliens to serve in American armed forces here and abroad. At the end of five years the foreigners would qualify for U. S. citizenship.

With the issue of separate white and Negro units decided, Senator Gurney (R-SD), floor manager of the bill, said he is confident the measure can be cleared swiftly to the House.

SEES HOUSE DELAY

There, however, Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill) told reporters "there is a very good chance" his rules committee will vote against putting a draft bill up for prompt House debate.

The slow progress on the draft bill on both sides of the capitol increased talk of Congress's possible return to work after the Republican convention which opens June 21.

Senate leaders said that if work can't be finished June 19, they want to come back after the GOP meeting and try to pass several pending bills.

The plan then would be to propose a separate civil rights measure which would provoke a southern Democratic filibuster. The bill probably could be passed only by invoking a gag rule. The GOP strategy would be to put the Democrats on the spot before their convention in July.

The Senate, now in its fifth day of draft debate, rejected an earlier effort by Senator Langer (R-ND) to tack the controversial civil rights program to the measure.

Trade Policy Kept Secret

WASHINGTON —(AP)— United States policy on trade with Russia settled into a "keep 'em guessing" phase today under strange circumstances.

To the secrecy over what goods the Soviet Union will be licensed to buy here was added another puzzler: What she actually has been allowed to get since the U. S. clamped down on export licenses March 1.

Plans for Secretary of Commerce Sawyer to tell what American goods Russia has been getting recently—as a rough guide to what she can have in the future—were cancelled abruptly yesterday.

No reason was given for the cancellation, but it was learned authoritatively that Secretary of State Marshall made a personal call on Sawyer shortly before the plans were changed.

At a news conference a little later, microphones which had been set up to record for radio use an expected statement by Sawyer, were requested removed because "no statement will be read."

Speculation over why the state department might object to disclosure of buying authorizations already given Russia centered on possible fear of its effect on the current battle in Congress over funds to aid Western Europe.

Sawyer told reporters he will release data later—he did not say when—on types and value of goods shipped to Russia, after the shipments have been cleared.

Daylight Time Finally Wins

GREEN SPRINGS —(UP)— The Green Springs village council today had voted to rescind an earlier action to abandon daylight savings time June 7, and to stay on fast time until the end of summer.

The council voted to switch back to slow time when a farm delegation protested shortly after the fast time was inaugurated.

The reversal to the original decision, however, was made when the Clyde and Fremont councils decided to keep the fast time.

Armistice To Begin On Friday

Brings Peace For 4 Weeks

(By Associated Press)

Both Arab and Jewish spokesmen said today their sides have accepted unconditionally the four-week armistice for Palestine.

Thus an uneasy peace for the war-torn land will begin at 1 a. m. (EST) Friday, the date fixed by the United Nations mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte. He will try in the four weeks to bring permanent peace between Israel and the seven Arab nations which have vowed to erase the new Jewish state.

The foreign minister of Trans-Jordan and a representative of the Arab countries in Cairo both said the Arabs accepted without strings.

Authoritative Jewish sources at Lake Success said Israel accepted without condition. Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative to the U N. was understood to have received word his government had accepted.

The NBC reported from freshly bombed Tel Aviv that the Jews also accepted in 1,000 words, which simmered down to yes. President Chaim Weizmann of Israel had indicated acceptance earlier. He told reporters in Paris "we are, in general, disposed to accept the truce."

Bernadotte is to announce the replies at 3 p. m. (EST).

JEWISH ANSWER LATE

The Arab reply went to the U.N. mediator an hour and a half before his deadline. The Jewish answer was 50 minutes late, possibly due to a splatter bombing of Tel Aviv while the Jewish cabinet considered it.

Bernadotte apparently had solved the differences between Jewish "assumptions" and Arab "explanations" in their original acceptances. The gulf was over immigration, besieged Jerusalem and a number of other points.

While achieving the armistice was a considerable coup for the Swedish count and the U.N., a far greater task lies ahead. This is to solve the difficult variance of Jewish and Arab views. The Arabs have insisted right along that a truce is meaningless while Israel exists.

Weizmann said the little new country would yield none of its sovereignty. He spoke of accepting up to 1,250,000 more Jewish immigrants in the next 10 years. He referred to Israel's crazy-quilt borders as fixed. He predicted British recognition within a month, and recognition by France and the Vatican before long. The United States, Russia and eight other nations have recognized his state.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said, however, Britain is under no legal obligation to recognize Israel.

Margin Held By Anderson

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(AP)—In a count slowed by a yard-long ballot, primary election returns early today gave Clinton P. Anderson an increasingly comfortable lead for New Mexico's Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

State party members thus displayed apparent willingness to go along with President Truman's endorsement of the former secretary of agriculture to succeed Senator Carl A. Hatch, who is retiring.

Reports slowed to a trickle with an estimated half of yesterday's vote counted.

At this juncture Anderson led former Gov. J. J. Dempsey 23,551 to 15,171 in returns from 416 of 868 precincts.

The fact that Anderson and Dempsey both are former members of the lower house presented yet another facet to their battle. Another former cabinet member—Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, one-time secretary of war—will oppose the winner in the general election. He won the Republican senatorial nomination without contest.

SENTENCE REDUCED

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The army said today it has reduced from 20 to 10 years at hard labor the sentence of Capt. Vincent Cochrane, of Kent, O., who was convicted of the fatal shooting of an enlisted man in Germany.

Hall Warns Of Need for Air Defense

Rotarians Hear Instruction Chief

Approximately 90 members of the Mansfield Rotary club heard an informative talk on "Our Air Defense" by Maj. Robert Hall, instruction officer of the 321st Bomber Group light, at the noon luncheon meeting in the Mansfield-Leland hotel yesterday.

Maj. Hall told of the history of the Air National Guard and the international guard units in accordance with his warning of the need of a strong air defense in America.

"We are living in the concept of an air ocean, which is serving in commerce and transportation throughout the world and is the only ocean that invades every back yard," he said.

"We must guard our northern frontiers which geographically is the center of our concentrated population and industrial area. We must keep our powder dry, but we must also work for peace as well.

"We have put our trust in a great hope of expectancy. In the predictions of Alfred Lord Tenneyson, the famed English poet, when he envisioned the present scientific progress of aviation in 1842 he also envisioned world peace and the federation of the world."

Scientists Rap Secrecy Policy

CHICAGO — (U.P.) — The Federation of American Scientists charged today that government agencies are withholding non-secret information from the public in order to avoid criticism.

Writing in the June issue of the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists for June, the federation's committee on secrecy and clearance said military and civilian agencies had tried to stop a questionnaire sent to the nation's laboratories, asking only about unclassified information including loyalty checks and clearance of employes of the various laboratories.

Shelby Awaits Engineer's Plan for $400,000 Plant

SHELBY—Although the date for starting work on the new municipal light plant still is indefinite, Shelby Finance Director Chester Monn yesterday signed $400,000 worth of bonds sold to finance the new plant.

Four hundred $1,000 bonds, bearing interest at two and a quarter per cent, have been sold to the Brown Bosworth company of Toledo at a premium of $144. The first semi-annual interest payment will be made Dec. 1.

Plans and specifications are being prepared by a Toledo engineering firm. They are promised for May 15 but have not yet been submitted to the city. Bids for construction are expected to be advertised soon after approval of the engineering plans.

Monn said the money was borrowed in advance to take "advantage of the bond market because the city was told that we are getting a favorable rate of interest." He also explained that borrowing the money in advance would enable the city to start sooner to pay off the 15-year mortgage.

"The city has a general idea of what the equipment for the plant will cost," Monn said. "There is no possibility that it will run less than $400,000 and it probably will run between $450,000 and $500,000.

SANDUSKY will field a semi-pro football team for the first time in 16 years this fall. . . . The club will be called the Maroons and backers have taken out insurance on the players. . . . Fifty men are now working out twice a week and the season doesn't open until September. . . . Ben Hogan, the wee belter, needs less than $200 to pass Lloyd Mangrum in the gold money derby. . . . Hogan has $15,597 for the year's work and is favored to win the National Open. . . . Carl F. "Ducky" Schroeder and David Putts have been hired as assistant grid coaches at Massillon. . . . ROGERS HORNSBY, one of the greatest right-handed hitting batsmen of all times, has this to say about the lively ball:

"Baseball, 20 years ago," he said, "was pretty much a defensive game, with emphasis on pitching. When a guy walked up to the plate it was a case of 'let the batter beware.' The pitcher could chuck anything he wanted to—shine balls, spitters, anything. "But now that's all done away with. The umpires come out to the game with four-dozen brand new balls, rubbed in a special brand of Chesapeake Bay mud, to take off just the right amount of shine. The old ball itself was a solid chunk of cotton twine covered by horsehide. You really had to lean in to get it to ride.

"The big change came during the career of the mighty Babe Ruth. When Ruth hit homers the fans yelled for more. Now no one has ever admitted this, but right at this time something mighty queer happened to the American league ball. It began to take off from the bat like a jack-rabbit with a ram-jet set in its basement. Then just to help out the 'sluggers' some more they moved the fences in.

"All of these things added up to another great change. The boys began playing for the book rather than for the team. Fat batting averages began to pay off in next year's salary. Baseball began to use more statistics than a dozen insurance companies. But in my book, the only record worth keeping is the payoff column—runs batted in."

Champion's Favored to Win By Kayo

By PAT ROBINSON

NEWARK, N. J.—(INS)—If the weather man is on his good behavior, Champion Rocky Graziano and challenger Tony Zale will meet for the third time for the middleweight title tonight.

The fight is scheduled for 15 rounds in the Newark ball park but nobody, including the two fighters, expects it to last half that long.

In fact, the bookies are laying 8 to 1 it won't go the limit. The same gentry are quoting 2 to 1 on Rocky to win or they'll accept 2½ to 1 if you want to bet on Zale.

Promoters said they had $250,000 already in the till and confidently expect a crowd of 22,000 to supply a $350,000 gate.

TRADE KNOCKOUTS

Zale knocked out Graziano in six rounds in their first bruising brawl in New York. Then Graziano won the title by stopping Zale in six heats in Chicago.

Now both boys predict victory by a knockout.

Both fighters will weigh in at noon today somewhat below the mandatory 160 pounds. Graziano weighed 156 after a light workout yesterday and says he will enter the ring somewhere close to that figure. Zale may be a pound or two heavier.

IN FIGHTING TRIM

Both are in perfect fighting trim. Those who like Graziano prefer him because he is several years younger than his battle-worn opponent. Those who prefer Zale do so because they think he is smarter and knows what to do in a pinch.

Graziano and Zale both insist they'll start slugging for a knockout from the opening bell. They probably will because that's the way they're gaited.

Graziano is supposed to have developed a nifty left hand but he'll probably forget all about the fancy stuff when the going gets rough.

Zale will rely on his usual terrific body punches to bring home the bacon.

Swimley Gets 580 In Loop

Harry Swimley fired a 203-193-184—580 to walk away with honors in the mixed doubles bowling league at the Colony bowling alleys last night.

Ev Marshman was among the women with a 199-146-154—499 series, to pace her partner to the high doubles score. Her partner, Dick Adams rolled 176-165-148—489 to give the two a 988 total.

Four men in addition to Swimley beat 500. They were Lloyd Pugh, 566; Art Hilborn, 539; Austin White, 508; and Don Bachman, 501.

TERRORS AT PLATE—Fielding gems are a dime a dozen for these two star infielders of the league-leading Cleveland Indians. In addition Lou Boudreau (left) trails Ted Williams in the batting parade .368 to .384 while Ken Keltner (right) leads the American league homer parade with 14.

Fritz Howell's Sports Chatter . . . .

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Bits of this and that from here and there: Johnny Mulcahy, all-tournament player from Lima St. Rose in the recent state championship high school basketball tourney, is quite a baseball player, too!

Thursday night, as Minister plays at Fort Laramie in a semi-pro game, major league scouts from Cincinnati, Boston Braves, both Chicago clubs, Philadelphia Phillies and the Detroit Tigers will watch the classy shortstop in action for Minister.

Johnny's activity with the semi-pro club during the playing season proved embarrassing to his school. All city league games were forfeited by St. Rose as Johnny was ruled ineligible and denied his baseball letter. At Sunday's exercises the youthful athlete, who has better than a .500 batting average for the year, was graduated, minus cap and gown, at the end of the line although he was a grade "A" student.

Pitt Athletic Set Up Still In Confusion

PITTSBURGH—(INS)—The muddled athletic situation at the University of Pittsburgh was thrown into even greater confusion today following the resignation of athletic director James (Whitey) Hagan.

Hagan was forced to quit the post he had held since 1937 after a series of committees investigated Pitt's decline as a football power.

At the close of the 1947 season, during which the Panthers won but one game, a faculty committee recommended that football coach Mike Milligan be fired. However, another group, which included undergraduates suggested that Milligan be retained and Hagan fired.

A "committee on committees" finally recommended formation of a new group of six to handle Pitt's athletic problems with Hagan as an ex-officio member.

The new group was reported all set to fire Hagan, but he beat it to the punch and submitted his resignation, effective July 1. Frank Carver, publicity director of the university, has been named acting athletic director.

Loudonville Juniors Edge Shreve, 9 to 8

Big Golfing Show All Set to Go

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— The greatest golfing show on earth, the U. S. open, gets under way tomorrow on the long, tough Riviera course calculated to stamp the 1948 winner a worthy champion.

It is the most coveted title for all the links domain, bringing together America's finest professionals and amateurs. The field that starts the grueling 72-hole trek, ending Saturday, will be one of the best.

One lone foreign entry, Arthur D'Arcy (Bobby) Locke, from far off Johannesburg, will battle par and this country's finest for top honors

Lew Worsham is on hand to defend the title.

The general and apparently logical favorite as the 171 survivors of sectional trials tested the 7,020-yard course in final practice today was little Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa.

Hogan bagged the Los Angeles open last January with a 275, nine under par. The course plays to a 35-36—71. Its yardage is the longest on which any previous U. S. open has been played and newly grown, long rough has added to its hazards

Eight former national open champs will lend color, experience and splendid golf to the tournament The grand, little "old man in knickers" Gene Sarazen, heads the division of ex-title winners. He was the head man in 1922, before many of the present competitors were born Tommy Armour, the silver Scot now playing out of Boca Raton, Fla., was open champ in 1927 He's on hand for another whirl So are Olin Dutra, winner in 1934, Tony Manero of Stamford Conn., 1936 leader, solemn-faced Ralph Guldahl, who flashed through the golfing skies in 1937-38 a double winner; Lawson Little, the one-time amateur wonder, Craig Wood and Lloyd Mangrum.

The former champions, of course form only a segment of the parade of top flighters after the prized crown.

Sam Snead, Jimmy Demaret, Clayton Haefner, Dick Metz, Claude Harmon, Toney Penna, Skip Alexander, Chick Harbert, Jim Ferrier, John Palmer, Horton Smith, Herman Barron, Ellsworth Vines, Ed Furgol, E. J. "Dutch" Harrison, George Schoux, Herman Keiser, and Vic Ghezzi, are among the nationally known par-breakers who could crash the winner's circle

The West Coast has first-class contenders in Charles Congdon, Tacoma, Wash.; Ed "Porky" Oliver of Seattle, Al Zimmerman, Portland, and Art Bell of San Francisco.

The sprinkling of outstanding amateurs includes Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., recent winner of the British amateur championship; U. S. champion Robert "Skee" Riegel of Upper Darby, Pa., and two time former national title winner Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, Wash

'Throw-In' Looks Like Best of Deal: Yankees Tie Athletics for 2nd Place

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

A "throw-in" in a deal between the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians two years ago, Gene Bearden, loomed today as the key player in Indians' American league pennant chances.

The wavy-haired southpaw came along as excess baggage when the Tribe acquired Allen Gettel and Hal Peck in a trade that sent Sherman Lollar and Ray Mack to the Yankees. He has proved to be the best pick-up the Indians have made since they plucked Bob Feller from the Iowa sandlots.

In fact, the 27-year-old rookie thus far has outshone the great Feller on the mound and currently rivals Bob Lemon as the No. 1 hurler on the staff.

The Los Angeles knuckleballer gained his sixth victory last night when he pitched the Indians to a 2-0 triumph over the Red Sox in Boston. The victory increased the Indians' first place lead over the Athletics and Yankees to three and a half games.

The Yankees moved into a second place tie with the Athletics, coming from behind to edge out the Chicago White Sox 3-2 in a 12-inning night battle at Yankee stadium. The Detroit Tigers nipped the A's 2-1 in another close one at Philadelphia.

Bobby Brown drove in the winning run for the Yankees with a two-out single in the 12th.

Hal Newhouser continued to climb back by holding the Athletics to seven hits. It was his fifth straight victory after four consecutive defeats.

The Senators came from behind three times to tie the score then tallied twice in the seventh to nip the St. Louis Browns 6-5 in a night game in Washington. Carden Gillenwater and Mark Christman, with two hits each, led the Nats' 12-hit attack against loser Bryan Stephens and Clem Dreisewerd.

GET PRETTY CLOSE

The St. Louis Cardinals advanced to within four percentage points of the National league leading New York Giants by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies 7-5 in a night game in St. Louis. Harry (The Cat) Brecheen gained his sixth victory against one defeat, but Ted Wilks saved the game for him with some brilliant relief pitching.

Scoring six runs in the first two innings, the Brooklyn Dodgers staved off a couple of desperate Cincinnati rallies to nip the Reds 6-5 in Cincinnati. Willard Ramsdell, relieving starter Ralph Branca in the third, allowed only two hits in six and one third innings.

Young Vernon Bickford gave up only four hits in pitching the Boston Braves to an 11-1 victory over Johnny Schmitz and the Cubs in Chicago. It was the Cubs seventh straight loss. Phil Masi and Tommy Holmes each collected three hits.

The scheduled night game between the Giants and Pirates in Pittsburgh was postponed by rain.

Industrial Softball League Games Scheduled Tonight

The three undefeated teams in the Industrial Softball league all have a chance to continue their winning ways this evening as they play lower-rung teams.

Farm Tools, winners of three starts, will meet Mansfield Plumbing at Johns Park, while Ideal Electric, also undefeated in three games, faces the Telephone company at Liberty park. Tappan Stove, undefeated but in third place with two wins, will tangle with Dominion Electric at North Lake park. The other contest will find Cole's Tool and Die meeting Mansfield Tire at Prospect park.

★

All softball games scheduled here yesterday were postponed by wet grounds including Gorman-Rupps night game with Akron Firestone. Attempts are being made to reschedule the game for some time later in the month.

★

The Ohio Sport Center team will meet the Nassa Cafe nine at Mt. Vernon at 7:45 tonight. Players are to meet at the Sport Center at 6:30.

Hot Stove Loops Finish Sessions

Organization of leagues in the Hot Stove Junior baseball program will be completed tomorrow with meetings of boys scheduled in two more districts.

Boys from St. Peter's school will meet at 11:30 a. m. at the school while at 2 p. m. the ward four boys from the Bowman and Roseland school district will meet at Johns Park. The fourth ward group was scheduled to meet yesterday afternoon but the meeting was postponed because of rain.

Cleveland Defeats Boston, 2 to 0

Bearden, Boudreau Team for Victory

BOSTON—(INS)—Most of the 33,032 spectators who watched the Cleveland Indians shut out the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, last night in Beantown still claim today that it was a scoreless ball game at the end of nine innings.

However, according to the records and Umpire Charlie Berry, it was Southpaw Gene Bearden's sixth victory against only one defeat.

The rookie southpaw was aided in gaining his second shutout over the Bosox by Manager Lou Boudreau, whose disputed fourth-inning homer into the right field stands with Allie Clark aboard brought a loud demonstration by the Boston bleacherites.

The four-bagger, which just missed being foul by a hair, gave the Indians their sixth victory in seven engagements with Boston and five straight wins on this eastern tour.

Last night's victory also boosted the Redskins' league-lead to 3½ games over Philadelphia, which dropped a 2-1 decision to Detroit. The Mackmen now are tied for second with the New York Yankees.

LOU'S SIXTH HOMER

Boudreau's homer, his sixth of the season, was one of the five hits the Tribe was able to squeeze out of Mel Parnell. Bearden also issued five base hits, all singles, but he walked six.

The purple heart veteran started off on a shaky leg in the first inning by walking Johnny Pesky and Ted Williams with one out, but he forced Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr to fly out.

The Boston fans received another letdown in the seventh when Bearden loaded the bases on two singles and a walk, but Sam Mele grounded to Robinson for the third out.

The Redskins had a chance to score in the eighth when they loaded the bases with only one out, but Ken Keltner flied to Dom DiMaggio in center and Walt Judnich, who had been hitting the ball hard all night, drove deep to Mele in right field.

Bob Feller was to go to the mound in quest of his sixth victory against four defeats. His opponent will be Jack Kramer.

Trapshooting Test Begins At Vandalia

VANDALIA—(AP)— Ohio's 62nd annual clay target shoot opened today over the quartermile trapline of the Amateur Trapshooting association.

More than 700 marksmen—largest field in history—will bang away at targets during the next five days. About 250 non-Ohioans are entered. They are using the Ohio shoot as a tuneup for the Grand American in late August.

Today's schedule is classed as a "preliminary." It calls for 100 targets at 16 yards, 50 at handicaps and 25 pairs of doubles.

Class championships will be decided tomorrow over the 200-target 16-yard route. Defending champions are Joe Hiestand of Hillsboro in Class A, O. E. Inloes of Hamilton in Class B, Ed Heister of Columbus, Class C, and J. W. Mowry of Mt. Orab, Class D.

Hiestand also will defend the state singles title on Friday in another 200-target, 16-yard event. Mrs. George Peters of Springfield now holds the women's title; Fred Waldock of Sandusky the junior crown, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Rader of Jeffersonville the husband-wife title.

★

Five Mansfield area men will fire in the shoot tomorrow. They are: Harold Goetz,, Lester Remy, Chet Beer, Monte Whitney, Harold Frey and Howard Smith.

HERE TONIGHT—Hank Greenberg, who is now hitting home runs in the banquet circuit instead of on the diamond, will address the B'nai Jacob Men's club at 8 p. m. Greenberg is now a Cleveland vice-president.

Rain-Soaked Course Helps N-J 'A' Golfers Break Par

Sloppy fairways and greens apparently helped instead of hindered News-Journal A league golfers yesterday evening as they turned in the best over-all scores of the year.

Bernie Mathias, Ray Malaska and Rollie Rachel all won the reputation of "mudders" as they fired one-under-par 35's over the rain-soaked Possum Run course. Pete Thoma, Jerry Rosenberg and Ted Muntan each shot 37.

Standings of the league were more jumbled than ever following yesterday's round which left three teams tied for the top spot. Blue Goose, Myers Supply and Penn Auto Sporting Goods each have 11 points, but to keep things from becoming too simple, a confusing circumstances involves a fourth, Orr Typewriter.

Orr and Blue Goose played to a dead heat in medal score, hence the one point given to the low team was not awarded. Whichever of the two teams fires the best score next week will be awarded an extra point. Orr could use this point to tie for the top or Blue Goose could use it to forge ahead.

Hottest team last night was Penn Auto which included Rosenberg's, Rachel's, and Muntan's low scores and a 44 by Earl Hershey. Penn won four points from Ideal Billiards, the same number captured by Myers' Supply from Smokehouse. PD's Bar defeated Flexible Conveyor, 3 to 2.

Ideal Billiards and Orr's are tied one point behind the leaders with 10, while PD's Bar and Flexible Conveyor have 9 points and Smokehouse 8.

Berner Is Hired As Bucyrus Coach

BUCYRUS—The Bucyrus Board of Education today hired Dale Berner, 27, Norwalk, as assistant coach of the high school.

Berner, coach last year at the York township school near Clyde, will be the fourth member of the Bucyrus coaching staff. Alex Kish will return from a year's leave of absence to take over the direction of junior high sports. Other coaches are Al Pesek and Charles Tschanen.

High Hurdle Classic Set for Saturday

DAYTON — (AP) — A classic 120-yard high hurdle race appeared in the cards today for the Ohio AAU qualifier next Saturday.

Entered are three of the five men certain to run the high sticks in less than 14 seconds—Harrison Dillard of Baldwin Wallace, Lloyd Duff of Ohio State and Ed Dugger of Dayton A. C.

Baseball Tourney Pairings Listed

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. —(INS)—Pairings for Friday's NCAA District Four baseball playoffs pitted Illinois against Ohio University and Michigan against western Michigan.

Winners of the two games at Champaign will meet Saturday for the right to represent the district in the eastern eliminations at Winston-Salem, N. C., June 15 to 18.

Bobby Mitchell Reels Off Five Straight Wins

AKRON —(INS)— Almost, but not quite, was the mark posted by jockey Bobby Mitchell in running yesterday at suburban Ascot Park.

Mitchell reeled off five consecutive wins before being bested in a photo finish by Molto Mucho in the sixth event. Mitchell came back, however, to cop the finale aboard Spectator.

Stage Auto Jumps

AKRON —(INS)— Ward Beam's Auto Daredevils stage the first annual open competition in Akron Saturday night among automobile and motorcycle stuntmen for the world's record in automobile broad jumping.

Gets Another Trial

MONTREAL—(INS)—Fiery Hank Behrman, pitching ace of the Montreal Royals, was slated for another trial today with the parent organization—the Brooklyn Dodgers. He has won six and lost two.

Office of County Commissioners, Richland County, Ohio, June 8th, 1948.

To Roy H. Ferguson, John G. Hoff, Arthur Krueger, R. F. Estep, Fred C. Brubach, et al, of Richland County, Ohio.

You are hereby notified, that the 18th day of June, 1948 at 10 o'clock A. M., is the time fixed by the County Commissioners of Richland County, Ohio, when, and their office in the Court House of said County in Mansfield, Ohio, the place where, claims for compensation and damages will be for hearing in the matter of establishing a part of the Mansfield-Norwalk Road (SR-13) Public Road, such hearing being a reopened Hearing as per agreement in original postponement and tabling of claims until construction plans were completed.

By Order of the County Commissioners.

NORMAN L. WOLFE,
Acting County Auditor.
(June 9, 16, N-J, '48).

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on the 5th day of May, 1948, there was presented to the Board of Commissioners of the County of Richland, a petition by the City of Mansfield, and also a petition signed by a majority of the voters in the following described territory situated in the County of Richland and adjacent to the City of Mansfield, to-wit:

All of the Village of South Boulevards being Lots Numbers 1 to 477 inclusive, including streets and parks

Both petitions praying therein that said territory be annexed to the City of Mansfield in the manner provided by law.

The petition of the City of Mansfield designates C. J. Kalbfleisch as their acting agent, and the petition of the people of South Boulevards designates the undersigned as their agent in securing such annexation.

The Board of Commissioners has fixed the 7th day of July 1948, at 10 o'clock A. M. as the time for hearing said petition at the office of the Commissioners in the County Court House.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

U. S. Evening War Balance With Russia

Time Growing Short for Reds

By WALTER LIPPMANN

WITH American rearmament assured by decisive majorities in Congress, a new phase in our relations with the Soviet Union is beginning. The critical question is how the Kremlin will react to the prospect with which, as a direct consequence of the coup d'etat in Czechoslovakia, it is now confronted.

The meaning of what has happened here between March and June must be plain—there are many indications that it is plain—to Stalin and the Russian general staff, even if it is not yet fully understood by all the members of the Politburo.

As of March this country was already capable of striking severe blows inside the Soviet Union. But it had not mobilized the reserves it has in its stockpiles, nor taken the measures to replenish and enlarge its reserves for a sustained and increasingly severe assault. Measures have now been adopted, assuming as we may that Congress also will vote the draft, which mean that month by month the American striking force will grow more powerful.

★

Thus month by month the balance of military power will become more and more unfavorable to the Soviet Union. For while the Red Army is still by all odds the most powerful military force in the Eurasian continent, it cannot advance anywhere without provoking a war with the United States.

For such a war the time required by this country to mobilize for severe reprisals is being reduced, the power to continue and intensify the reprisals is being increased.

Therefore, time being against them, if the rulers of Russia intend to react to the situation by military measures, they will not wait until American mobilization and rearmament are completed. All military power is relative, and in the present situation the Red Army as an instrument for the conquest or domination of Europe is deteriorating. It is still capable of overrunning the near-by countries of western Europe and the Middle East. But the cost of such an adventure is certain, is known, and is prohibitive. For the Red Army is incapable of defending Russian territory against destructive attack, and it is altogether impotent for a serious attack against the continental United States.

For these reasons, which I believe are controlling and compelling, it is in the highest degree probable that the so-called "peace offensive" is not mere propaganda, that is to say, exclusively an attempt to confuse and divert public opinion in Europe and America.

No doubt the Kremlin would be delighted if it could cause us to suspend rearmament and lose interest in the European Recovery Program. But Stalin is no fool, and never has been, and however twisted and distorted may be the political intelligence he receives, the adoption of the American military program is a fact which he and his military advisers are bound to understand.

It is, therefore, highly probable that the peace offensive is primarily an attempt to bargain—to give up as little as possible and to get in return as much as possible. In all bargaining of this kind there is, of course, insincerity, bluff, and propaganda. A man who offers a hundred dollars in a horse trade, hoping to get the horse for a hundred and twenty-five, though he is prepared to give a hundred and fifty, is no doubt insincere, is bluffing, is conducting propaganda. But if he really wants the horse, he is not merely a propagandist; he is a horse trader.

Now in my view the real question is not whether the peace offensive is propaganda. It is whether the Kremlin has decided that it must have peace or that it must risk a war.

The answer to that question will not be found by studying the writings of Marx, Lenin and Stalin, or by elaborating theories about the Soviet mentality. The answer will be given objectively by events which will take place within the next few months, almost certainly within the next year.

If for any reason the Soviets do not want to negotiate a peace settlement, they will take overt military action in the fairly near future to counteract the American military program. If they do not act, if the Red Army continues to stand still while American military power mounts, then it will mean that the Kremlin has decided to negotiate a modus vivendi, making the best bargain it can get.

Election Post Goes To Will

GOP Chairman Endorsed

Attorney James V. Will, chairman of the Richland county Republican central committee, last night was endorsed for appointment to the county board of elections to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of George Williams of Shelby.

Will was endorsed by the county GOP executive committee. Formal appointment is expected to be made by the secretary of state.

Will won the endorsement over Harry Maxwell of Lexington. The board term will expire in February, 1950. The other Republican member of the election board is Earl A. McFarland. Democratic members are Mrs. Marie Bell, Mansfield, and Charles Innes, Butler.

Will's pay as a board member will be $79.16 a month.

The executive committee chose Carl R. Daugherty of Shelby to succeed Mr. Williams as a member of the Republican central committee.

ACTION DEFERRED

Ralph M. Hardy, executive committee chairman, said no action was taken to fill the managerial position at the Aid for the Aged office, left vacant recently by the resignation of William Grubaugh. Hardy said action was postponed because "all the applicants were over 60 years of age."

Three Mansfielders have applied for the job. Hardy said their applications would be forwarded to the Columbus office of the Aid for the Aged for a decision on eligibility. Applicants are Frank A. Schlemmer, 669 McPherson street; Wilford L. Baughman, 536 South Main street; and Harry E. Crooks, 826 West Third street.

The Aid for Aged office is now being managed temporarily by Howard Neuman, an investigator for the department.

Lewis Bids For Pension

WASHINGTON —(AP)—John L. Lewis today offered to keep the coal miners on the job after July 1—when their present contract expires—if mine operators agree to his $100 a month pension plan.

Negotiations for a new contract began last Monday under order of Justice T. Alan Goldsborough, but there is doubt whether a new agreement can be reached by July 1.

Lewis issued a statement saying he would recommend to the 200-man policy committee of the UMW that the mines be kept in operation.

The policy committee never has overruled him.

Mine operators were about to make a contract offer. They have been working on one for 48 hours.

The miners get a vacation period beginning June 25 and ending July 5.

Lewis said that the union negotiating committee would recommend keeping the mines in operation under the present contract after July 6. "With the understanding that any changes or improvements negotiated, affecting wages or conditions of employment, will be made retroactive to July 1."

Youngstown Has New Payroll Tax

YOUNGSTOWN —(INS)— Starting July 1, Youngstowners will pay .3 per cent of every dollar they earn into the city treasury.

The 3-mill income tax levy finally was passed yesterday by city council after months of wrangling over the amount and the job of setting up the collection machinery is expected to get underway immediately.

The tax will be paid by all persons either living or working in Youngstown, with no exceptions.

Sewage Turns Ritter's Run Into Foul-Smelling Stream

City Cites Lack of Equipment

Residents of Area Protest Dumping

By SHELDON BINN

The combination of a hamstringing contract for rental of construction equipment and the lack of cooperation by the public has turned Ritter's Run into a polluted, foul-smelling stream.

Although there have been reports of pollution of the stream at intervals during the past five or six years, the dry weather last week brought the problem to a head. Persons living near the creek said the stream started giving off an unpleasant odor.

The once clear playground for generations of Mansfielders, has become a dumping ground for scores of thoughtless persons. The pollution is bringing protest from residents in the area.

Direct cause of the odor was raw sewage being spilled into the stream from a broken sewer tile. The tile had been broken since last fall when the stream undercut a storm sewer which fell on the sanitary sewer pipe and broke it.

City officials were aware of the break last year, but could not have it fixed immediately because the city does not have the needed construction equipment. It does have a contract with the R. O. Darling company for rental of such equipment, but since the Darling company is swamped with other work, the equipment is not always available for the city's use.

The broken sanitary sewer did not cause any trouble last year or early this year, because the stream was moving fast enough to dilute the sewage and carry it away.

'Girl Friend' Sues Meyers

NEW YORK — (UP) — The former secretary of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers sued him for $250,000 today charging that he defamed her character by telling a Senate war investigating committee that she was his "girl friend."

Mrs. Mildred R. Lamarre, of Dayton, O., brought suit in federal district court against the former deputy chief of army air force procurement. Meyers now is serving a jail sentence of from 20 months to five years for perjury during the Senate war fraud hearings.

The suite quoted several "defamatory" statements made by Meyers while testifying about his relations with Mrs. Lamarre's husband, Bleriot, the $51.50-a-week dummy president of Meyers' Aviation Electric corporation.

"I'll tell you how I came to set up Aviation Electric for Bleriot Lamarre," the suit quoted Meyers. "His wife and I had an affair over a period of eight years. You know how it is. I make no apology for sleeping with the gal —you know how those things are —she used to be a pretty girl in those days."

Temperature To Climb

Summer weather will return tomorrow following three days of intermittent showers and chilly temperatures, the weatherman forecast today.

Showers yesterday afternoon added .15 of an inch of rain to precipitation in Mansfield, bringing the total to nearly three-fourths of an inch since Saturday.

The mercury showed little variance in Mansfield yesterday and last night. The high was 65 and the low 51. It was hot yesterday in the southwest and northwest. Fort Worth, Texas, reported 100 degrees and Bismarck, N. D., had a reading of 87.

BUS DRIVERS STRIKE

LORAIN —(UP)— Seventy drivers and maintenance men of the Employes Transit Line, Inc., serving Lorain and nearby Amherst, went on strike early today after the company refused their demands for a 30-cent wage increase.

BLAST WRECKS SWANKY COUNTRY CLUB—A fireman, foreground, points to a spot where it is believed an explosion which wrecked the fashionable Hillcrest Country club at Los Angeles, originated during installation of a new gas line. The blast, followed by fire, killed one, injured at least five yesterday. The explosion occurred in a locker room, and scattered lockers in a semi-circle for 50 feet. The roof blew off the clubhouse and a fire virtually gutted it despite the efforts of 12 fire-fighting companies.

J. P. Snapp Dies At 76

Fall Blamed In Death Of Remy Official

Joseph P. Snapp, 76, of 138 Vennum avenue, treasurer of the Albert F. Remy company, died at General hospital Tuesday at 4 p. m. after a brief illness.

Death resulted from injuries received in a fall at his office Monday, according to members of the family.

Mr. Snapp was born in San Francisco Sept. 21, 1871, coming to Mansfield about 54 years ago. He had been affiliated with the Albert F. Remy company for 51 years. He was secretary to the Mansfield chapter of the United Commercial Travelers, a charter member of the Amima club, and a member of the First Presbyterian church. Mr Snapp had been active both in church and civic affairs.

He is survived by his wife, Olive; one daughter, Mrs. J. Harry Craig, of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Whitaker of Reno, Nev.; and Mrs. Lawrence Farrell of Los Angeles, Calif.

The body is at the Jones Memorial, where friends may call. Services will be held there Friday at 2 p. m., in charge of Rev. David N. Roller. Interment will be in the Mansfield mausoleum.

Reds Rebuild Murmansk

STOCKHOLM — (UP) — The Swedish newspaper Tidningen said today that the Russians are rebuilding the famous wartime port of Murmansk, high above the Arctic circle, into a Russian naval stronghold and probably Europe's biggest naval base.

Military equipment from the former German naval base of Wilhelmshaven is being moved to Murmansk, the Swedish paper said in a dispatch quoting Moscow papers.

Murmansk is being rebuilt as part of a Russian program to open up the Arctic ship route across the top of the world from Murmansk to the Chuckchee peninsula, which borders on the Bering strait opposite Alaska, the paper said.

The route is being re-established by the Soviet Marine corps, the paper said, so rich gold, silver, lead and zinc deposits in the Chuckchee peninsula can be exploited.

Eagle Fight Cuts Lights

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. —(AP)— A battle between two eagles plunged half a dozen small northern Arizona communities into darkness.

Arizona Power company lineman reported yesterday the Eagles apparently had fought over the body of a young goat while perched on the cross-arm of a pole carrying a 44,000-volt wire.

Dem Critics Snipe At President

Truman's Tour Adds To Party Rumblings

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL—(UP)—Another state Democratic leader heaped criticism upon President Truman's western tour today, adding to the party rumblings the chief executive left behind him in Montana and Nebraska.

Lew Wallace, Democratic nominee for governor of Oregon and a national Democratic committeeman said he was "sick and tired" of the way Mr. Truman's assistants were handling arrangements for his visit to Oregon.

Dedication Causes Embarrassing Error

CAREY, Ind.—(AP)—President Truman found himself in an embarrassing spot yesterday when he dedicated an airfield to a boy killed in the war, only to learn that it was a girl killed in a mishap at home.

Mr. Truman said he was happy to be able to present a dedication wreath to the parents of a boy who died that liberty might live. The President was told of the error, and said: "Well, I congratulate you. It was for the welfare of the country that she did it."

Wilma Coates, 16, was killed in a plane crash a year ago in February. Mr. Truman shook hands with the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Coates, and said he was sorry for his mistake.

"Oh, that's all right," Mrs. Coates said.

Bribe Story Will Be Told to Jury

COLUMBUS—(UP)—Dan Diloreto, Ravenna war veteran who charged he was solicited for a $3,000 bribe by a state liquor department inspector, has been subpoenaed to appear before the Franklin county grand jury on Thursday.

County Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett said Diloreto will be asked to repeat his story that an inspector asked for the bribe after he filed an application for a night club permit.

Family Frown for Princess Denied

Parents OK Royal Match

ATHENS —(AP)— A spokesman for ex-King Mihai (Michael) of Romania said today Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma is being married here tomorrow with the full consent and agreement of her parents.

He declared that Anne's uncle, Prince Xavier of Bourbon-Parma, spoke without authority in Paris Monday when he said the Bourbon-Parma family did not approve of Anne's marriage to Mihai.

"Anne has a mother and father with whose full consent and agreement the wedding is going to take place," the spokesman said.

"The reason Xavier made this statement," he added, "is because he is under the complete domination of the Catholic church and is most anxious to protect his position."

(Xavier is a pretender to the Spanish throne).

A dispensation was sought from the Pope, but reportedly refused because of Mihai's insistence that any children of the union be brought up in his faith—the Greek Orthodox. The wedding ceremony, tomorrow noon, will be performed in that rite, by Archbishop Damaskinos.

Mihai's spokesman said today Anne "has no intentions" of being converted to the Greek Orthodox church. An earlier announcement said children born of their union would be raised in the Greek Orthodox faith.

Voters Back Income Tax In Columbus

Revenue Measure Given Approval

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Speaking with ballots, Columbus voters have endorsed the remedy—a municipal income tax—prescribed for the city's anemic treasury.

In a special referendum, voters yesterday approved a one half of one per cent payroll-income tax 34,190 to 24,003.

Commenting on the favorable majority, Mayor James A. Rhodes said it would shoot new pep into the city's financial arteries and establish Columbus "as a pay-as-you-go metropolitan city."

Columbus was the second Ohio city to approve such a tax. Toledo voters backed a similar levy two years ago by a 57 per cent favorable vote.

Columbus adopted its tax six months ago. The levy netted $528,000 the first three months.

Yesterday's special election marked the eighth time in 14 years that Columbus residents were asked to vote additional taxes on themselves. The seven previous attempts—all calling for higher real estate taxes—failed.

The Ohio CIO council said today it planned court action to test constitutionality of the income tax.

William J. Lavelle, executive secretary of the state CIO organization, said a suit will be filed challenging validity of the levy. He said he was not prepared to say where or when the suit will be filed pending conference with CIO legal counsel.

Legal experts have expressed doubt that a suit could be filed directly in the state supreme court. A test of the validity of the tax, therefore, apparently will have to work its way up through the lower courts before a final decision can be obtained.

Fire Fighters Catch Blaze On 4th Try

DECATUR, Ill.—(AP)—Firemen spent ten minutes chasing a fire before they put it out last night. They made it on the fourth try.

The fire was in an empty freight car on an Illinois Central train. By the time the fire engine got to an intersection where the train had been, it had moved on.

The firemen backtracked a block, sped two blocks parallel to the tracks, and dashed down another side street to the railroad intersection.

By the time they got there, the burning car had passed that point.

They made two more similar trips before they caught up with the fire.

The train's crew, meanwhile knew of the blaze, but didn't know the fire engine was chasing the train. They had kept the train moving, looking for a side street with a fire hydrant.

The freight car's sides were burned up. The firemen were a little hot, too.

Czechs Adopt Constitution

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia —(AP) —The new Czech constitution, which President Eduard Benes refused to sign, becomes the law of the land today.

A government announcement to this effect did not say by what executive signature the document was made valid.

The presumption is that Communist Premier Klement Gottwald signed it after Benes handed in his resignation Monday. Gottwald is considered the leading candidate to succeed Benes. Parliament will choose the new president Monday.

MARRIAGE ON ROCKS

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Elsie Janis, veteran actress of stage and screen, announces that she and her actor-husband, Gilbert Wilson, are separating. Miss Janis, 58, said yesterday she is not planning divorce action. She and Wilson, 42, were married in 1932.

Senators Kept Busy On Draft

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Weary senators embroiled in a new draft-civil rights fight today faced their third night session in a drive to speed the measure to an uncertain House fate.

Called together again an hour earlier than usual, they rejected an amendment sponsored by Senators Russell (D-Ga) and Maybank (D-SC) which would let enlisted men serve in segregated units upon request.

In its second overtime session last night, the Senate adopted an amendment to limit the selective service law to two years instead of five as originally proposed.

Earlier it approved a provision to permit 25,000 aliens to serve in American armed forces here and abroad. At the end of five years the foreigners would qualify for U. S citizenship.

With the issue of separate white and Negro units decided, Senator Gurney (R-SD), floor manager of the bill, said he is confident the measure can be cleared swiftly to the House.

SEES HOUSE DELAY

There, however, Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill) told reporters "there is a very good chance" his rules committee will vote against putting a draft bill up for prompt House debate.

The slow progress on the draft bill on both sides of the capitol increased talk of Congress's possible return to work after the Republican convention which opens June 21.

Senate leaders said that if work can't be finished June 19, they want to come back after the GOP meeting and try to pass several pending bills.

The plan then would be to propose a separate civil rights measure which would provoke a southern Democratic filibuster. The bill probably could be passed only by invoking a gag rule. The GOP strategy would be to put the Democrats on the spot before their convention in July.

The Senate, now in its fifth day of draft debate, rejected an earlier effort by Senator Langer (R-ND) to tack the controversial civil rights program to the measure.

Trade Policy Kept Secret

WASHINGTON —(AP)— United States policy on trade with Russia settled into a "keep 'em guessing" phase today under strange circumstances.

To the secrecy over what goods the Soviet Union will be licensed to buy here was added another puzzler: What she actually has been allowed to get since the U. S. clamped down on export licenses March 1.

Plans for Secretary of Commerce Sawyer to tell what American goods Russia has been getting recently—as a rough guide to what she can have in the future—were cancelled abruptly yesterday.

No reason was given for the cancellation, but it was learned authoritatively that Secretary of State Marshall made a personal call on Sawyer shortly before the plans were changed.

At a news conference a little later, microphones which had been set up to record for radio use an expected statement by Sawyer, were requested removed because "no statement will be read."

Speculation over why the state department might object to disclosure of buying authorizations already given Russia centered on possible fear of its effect on the current battle in Congress over funds to aid Western Europe.

Sawyer told reporters he will release data later—he did not say when—on types and value of goods shipped to Russia, after the shipments have been cleared.

Daylight Time Finally Wins

GREEN SPRINGS —(UP)— The Green Springs village council today had voted to rescind an earlier action to abandon daylight savings time June 7, and to stay on fast time until the end of summer.

The council voted to switch back to slow time when a farm delegation protested shortly after the fast time was inaugurated.

The reversal to the original decision, however, was made when the Clyde and Fremont councils decided to keep the fast time.

Armistice To Begin On Friday

Brings Peace For 4 Weeks

(By Associated Press)

Both Arab and Jewish spokesmen said today their sides have accepted unconditionally the four-week armistice for Palestine.

Thus an uneasy peace for the war-torn land will begin at 1 a. m. (EST) Friday, the date fixed by the United Nations mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte. He will try in the four weeks to bring permanent peace between Israel and the seven Arab nations which have vowed to erase the new Jewish state.

The foreign minister of Trans-Jordan and a representative of the Arab countries in Cairo both said the Arabs accepted without strings.

Authoritative Jewish sources at Lake Success said Israel accepted without condition. Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative to the U.N. was understood to have received word his government had accepted.

The NBC reported from freshly bombed Tel Aviv that the Jews also accepted in 1,000 words, which simmered down to yes. President Chaim Weizmann of Israel had indicated acceptance earlier. He told reporters in Paris "we are, in general, disposed to accept the truce."

Bernadotte is to announce the replies at 3 p. m. (EST).

JEWISH ANSWER LATE

The Arab reply went to the U.N. mediator an hour and a half before his deadline. The Jewish answer was 50 minutes late, possibly due to a splatter bombing of Tel Aviv while the Jewish cabinet considered it.

Bernadotte apparently had solved the differences between Jewish "assumptions" and Arab "explanations" in their original acceptances. The gulf was over immigration, besieged Jerusalem and a number of other points.

While achieving the armistice was a considerable coup for the Swedish count and the U.N., a far greater task lies ahead. This is to solve the difficult variance of Jewish and Arab views. The Arabs have insisted right along that a truce is meaningless while Israel exists.

Weizmann said the little new country would yield none of its sovereignty. He spoke of accepting up to 1,250,000 more Jewish immigrants in the next 10 years. He referred to Israel's crazy-quilt borders as fixed. He predicted British recognition within a month, and recognition by France and the Vatican before long. The United States, Russia and eight other nations have recognized his state.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said, however, Britain is under no legal obligation to recognize Israel.

Margin Held By Anderson

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(AP)— In a count slowed by a yard-long ballot, primary election returns early today gave Clinton P. Anderson an increasingly comfortable lead for New Mexico's Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

State party members thus displayed apparent willingness to go along with President Truman's endorsement of the former secretary of agriculture to succeed Senator Carl A. Hatch, who is retiring.

Reports slowed to a trickle with an estimated half of yesterday's vote counted.

At this juncture Anderson led former Gov. J. J. Dempsey 23,551 to 15,171 in returns from 416 of 868 precincts.

The fact that Anderson and Dempsey both are former members of the lower house presented yet another facet to their battle. Another former cabinet member—Maj Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, one-time secretary of war—will oppose the winner in the general election. He won the Republican senatorial nomination without contest.

New Housing Bill Omits 500,000 Public Low-Rental Units

Stage Set For Bitter House Fight

GOP Leadership Backs Measure

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Failure of the House Republican leadership to include public housing and slum clearance in long-range housing legislation set the stage today for a bitter fight in the lower chamber.

The House banking and currency committee will begin consideration tomorrow of a substitute bill for thhe Taft-Ellender-Wagner long-range housing legislation approved by the Senate.

The bill was introduced late yesterday by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich) committee chairman, with the blessing of the GOP leadership. Wolcott declared that his group would report the bill out tomorrow and the leadership has scheduled it for House consideration early next week.

It was generally expected that the bill would be approved by the Republican-controlled committee substantially without change.

Republicans were confident the measure would also be passed by the House without major revision.

Wolcott anticipated that the Senate would reject the House bill and the legislation would then go to a joint conference committee, which would attempt to work out a compromise.

House supporters of the T-E-W bill quickly promised a fight on the floor to change the Wolcott measure and its sponsor said it would be met "head on."

Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D-Calif), assailed Wolcott. She stated that "he stands out against everyone except the real estate lobby." Rep. Klein (D-NY) bluntly charged that "the (House) Republican leadership sold out completely to the real estate lobby."

Wolcott explained that the Senate provision for government construction of 500,000 low-rental housing units during the next five years was omitted because it was "socialistic."

The same was true, he added, of the Senate provision for government financial support to communities for slum clearance. The Wolcott bill also left out T-E-W provisions for urban redevelopment and rural housing aid. The sponsor said they were analagous to public housing and slum clearance.

Death Claims City Resident

Old-Time Minstrel Players Get Together for Reunion

Mansfield's Barber Shop Singers' Society got a taste of the old routines last night when Harry Bolus, native Mansfielder and now song and dance man with Columbia pictures in Hollywood, appeared as guest of honor at the meeting.

The SPEBSQSA session was held at North Lake park pavilion where members dined, sang and swapped tales of the good old minstrels of "yester year."

Bolus' talk on the old time show business when he used to tour the Keith circuit brought out the talent in the group for an impromptu program which included the Westinghouse, Four Tenors and Humdingers' quartets.

Next on the line-up was Russell Whitcomb who played a banjo and guitar duet with Bolus.

That seemed to limber up the toes of Bolus' old pals, Roy Zimmerman, Eddie Fisher and Dick Zimmerman who put on a number of dances they used "way back when." The late Marty Hogan, Mansfield dance instructor, was also a member of the gang.

Members of the society said today that the first birthday party for the group, originally scheduled for June 22, has been changed to Monday, June 28, because of the Mastersingers' concert.

2 Men Held To Jury In Burglary

Plead Innocent In Municipal Court

Torrence Jefferson Freeman, 9 John Long avenue, and John Berger jr., Lucas, pleaded innocent in municipal court today to charges of breaking and entering, waived preliminary examination and were bound over to the grand jury under $3,000 bond each.

The men are accused of entering the Clyde Adams gun shop, 534 Bowman street, early Saturday and taking eight pistols and revolvers and seven boxes of cartridges.

Freeman was apprehended a short time after the burglary after a Bowman street woman saw two men enter the store. She called police. Berger was arrested yesterday by police.

Fined $10 for speeding were Forest Berkshire, 30 France street, and Robert Thompsom, 456 Lily street. Donald E. Washington, 830 Springmill street, paid $5 and costs for having improper lights, and Ralph L. Swartz, 28 Armstrong street, paid a similar fine for failure to have an operator's license.

James Conley, 312 East Second street, was fined $15 for unsafe operation, $5 for failing to display an operator's license on demand and his right to drive was revoked for 30 days.

Paul Zernis, 398½ North Main street, pleaded innocent to a paternity charge and hearing was set for June 16.

Jenkins Heads Commandery

E. Ray Jenkins was elected and installed as commander of Mansfield Commandery No. 21, Knights Templar, at the annual ceremonies at Masonic Temple last night.

Other officers of the Commandery elected and installed were Harry M. Spandau, generalissimo; E. Jackson Osborne, captain general; Clarence H. Fisher, senior warden; Cloyd Pugh, junior warden; George W. Culler, prelate; Howard B. Almy, treasurer; Arliss F. Porter, recorder; Zenophon K. Critchfield, standard bearer; W. Russell McCullough, sword bearer; Talmadge O. Nelson, warden; Eugene B. Boling, third guard; Roldy K. Wilhelm, second guard, and Paul Burnison, first guard, and Charles W. Rhoads, sentinel.

Installing officers were Eminent Sir Knight Henry A. Senert, grand captain of the guard, and Eminent Sir Knight Harry V. Henness, PC marshal.

John S. McNaul, retiring commander, was presented with the past commander's jeweled pin by E. Jackson Osborne, captain general.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Injured When Hit By Bicycle

Mrs. Harry Longsdorf, 592 Barnard avenue, was cut and bruised when she was struck by a bicycle shortly before noon today.

The accident occurred on Marion avenue near Sherman. She was taken to the hospital where she was treated and released. The bicycle rider's name was not learned.

Fireworks Display to Climax Ashland's July 4 Celebration

ASHLAND — Spectacular fireworks will wind up one of the most elaborate Fourth of July celebrations ever staged in Ashland when the retail committee of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce sponsors the event July 4, at Brookside park.

Games, contests, ball games, band music and the fireworks are expected to attract thousands to the big municipal park to compete for the many special prizes offered for contests and games.

For those bringing picnic suppers to the park for the day, cold soft drinks will be furnished.

Seibert Kastan is chairman of the committee for the event assisted by Joe McClure, Harry Eaton, Clyde Young and Joe Weiss.

Kastan pointed out that one of the chief purposes of the event is to provide holiday entertainment for all persons in the trade area on a day when long-distance travel is dangerous because of crowded roads.

Financing of the event is being handled through donations from all Ashland merchants.

At a meeting of merchants Thursday night, further plans for the big celebration will be completed.

CHURCH GROUP MEETS

GALION — A potluck supper was enjoyed by members of the Philathea class of First Reformed church Monday night in the home of Miss Cora Dinkel.

Mrs. Melanson Dies At Age 74

Mrs. Helen Kagey Melanson, 74, widow of Fred Melanson, 151 West Third street, died today in the Foulks Rest Home following an eight-week illness.

Mrs. Melanson was born in Ashland June 23, 1873. The daughter of Isaac and Suzan Tawsley Kagey, she had lived in Mansfield for 20 years. She was a member of the First Methodist church and the Miriam Rebekah lodge.

The only survivors are several cousins.

Friends may call at the Finefrock funeral home where services will be conducted Friday at 1:30 p. m. by Rev. Charles W. Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist church. Burial will be in the Ashland cemetery.

Car He Picked Wasn't Going Anywhere

Alex Bradley, Morehead, Ky., apparently took the wrong train.

He decided last night to leave town, so he crawled into a railroad car at the Empire Steel mill that was loaded with scrap metal. He bedded himself down on what must have been an uncomfortable bed, hoping to awake many miles from Mansfield.

Bradley picked the wrong "Pullman", however, because the car he chose had just arrived at the plant and was waiting to be unloaded. He was found sleeping on his bed of steel by a railroad detective who arrested him on a charge of intoxication.

So instead of being on his way to no place in particular today, he is going to the Columbus workhouse. He was sent there to serve out a $100 and costs assessed against him in municipal court for intoxication.

Verdict Due Today

The trial of Donald DeVere Bowman, 24-year-old Columbus man charged with the armed robbery of the Wade and Roberts restaurant at Orchard park April 5, was recessed at noon today. Common Pleas court officials said they expected a verdict to be returned later today

Only witness for Bowman was Wallace Isay Black, 29, of Cleveland, companion of Bowman's at the time of the robbery. Black also is charged with armed robbery. Black testified that Bowman had no gun at the time of the robbery. Black was identified as the holdup man in the case by the restaurant owners, authorities said.

William A. Calhoun, counsel for the defendant, told the jury today that two witnesses, previously scheduled to testify for the defendant today, were not brought into court "because Bowman's implication in the case is undeniably true." Calhoun said, however, that Bowman should not be charged with armed robbery since he was not in possession of a gun or other weapon at the time of the robbery.

City Stream Gives Off Foul Odor

Ritter's Run Smell Brings Protest

became sluggish. It began to have an odor.

Last week the city finally got equipment from the Darling company and was able to put up a temporary tile which kept the sewage from emptying into the stream.

But even without the sanitary sewage dumping into the creek, persons living along the stream, especially on Ohio street between Sturges and Glessner avenue, still must breathe the foul smell whenever a dry spell lowers the stream level.

This is because many thoughtless persons persist in dumping garbage, tin cans and other refuse into the creek, rather than pay the city for garbage and trash collection service.

This tends to clog the stream, causing stagnant pools to form in which the garbage decays and gives off a foul smell.

Dumping garbage in the stream is unlawful and persons caught are subject to severe penalties.

The first step toward correcting this dangerous evil must obviously be directed at preventing the dumping of garbage into the stream.

The stream is kept clear by the street department of fallen branches and trees which normally collect in the channel. City council has appropriated only $500 a year for that work.

FUNDS LACKING

"We don't have enough money to clear out tin cans and garbage that people illegally throw into the stream," Street Supt. E. W. Davis said.

Actually, the stream needs dredging, Davis pointed out, but that would take a special council appropriation—running into many thousands of dollars.

Persons living along the stream reported that last week they were forced to go into the stream and clean it out with rakes and hoes because the smell was becoming unbearable.

Residents along the creek have suggested that the entire stream be enclosed in a tile. This, however, is not within the city's jurisdiction and must be done by the local conservancy district.

The street and sewer departments are attempting to keep the stream free, but they need the cooperation of the general public.

As far as the construction equipment is concerned, little can be done about it at this time, city spokesmen said. The city's yearlong contract with Darling prevents municipal officials from going out on the open market to get equipment. It would cost more that way, but one city official said it would be worth it because then the needed work could be done.

B. V. BeVier, city sanitary engineer, has suggested that council purchase for an estimated $26,000 the needed equipment so that the city could do its own work.

The club made plans for a bake sale to be held July 17 in the Third Street Market. Next meeting of the club will be June 14 at the home of Mrs. Swisher on Sunset boulevard.

Ohio Farm Prices Drop

Level Higher Than In 1947

COLUMBUS —(U.P.)— The general price paid for crops to Ohio farmers dropped slightly during the month ending May 15 but was "sharply higher" than the level a year earlier, a crop bulletin reported today.

The Bulletin, prepared by the Ohio Cooperative Crop Reporting service and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, said the only exception to the general drop was the price paid for soybeans.

Soybeans increased five cents and were 80 cents higher than a year ago, corn was 55 cents higher and oats 26 cents higher. The price of wheat dropped to 21 cents lower than the previous year's figure.

All meat animals except hogs increased in price during the month ending May 15. Hogs declined $1.30 per hundred pounds during the period. Beef cattle and lamb prices rose to new all time highs of $25 and $23.40 per hundred pounds.

The service reported that the price of milk cows on May 15 established a new all time high at $180 per head while butterfat and milk sold at wholesale were down three cents per pound and five cents per hundred pounds from a month earlier.

The prices of all principal commodities were higher on May 15 than a year ago except rye, which remained the same, and wheat, apples, hogs and wool which were lower.

Mansfield News-Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1948

Nearly every driver can learn something from the motorist ahead of him.

A suggested switch in the Hollywood version of the marriage ceremony puts it: "For better, for worse, but not for good."

Add to the gloom of Brooklyn's baseball fans the fact that officials and social workers who toured the city's slums found "conditions deplorable."

Still Some Hope for Housing Bill

ONE of the most mystifying examples of congressional inaction presents itself in the appearance of determination to prevent the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill from reaching a vote in the House, after it was passed by the Senate on April 22.

Drew Pearson's "Merry-Go-Round" article on this page today, touches on this subject, with recital of an incident showing methods employed to prevent congressmen from signing the petition to rescue the bill from the House banking and currency committee, where it had been pigeonholed.

It appears that there is still a glimmer of hope that the housing bill will be accorded a place on the "must" legislation, before the June 19 adjournment or recess, but present prospects are not bright, unless sufficient pressure can be developed to offset the strong lobbying being done against it.

Senator Taft has been making a hard fight for this bill, which seeks to provide the maximum of low-cost housing with the minimum of government interference. Controversy between Senate and House committees centers on the public housing features of the bill, despite the fact that private agencies have proved totally inadequate to meet the emergency need for more homes in practically every large and small city.

Time Issue to Be 'Settled' Again

MANY will heave a sigh of relief when city council decides tomorrow night, whether Mansfield is to continue on "slow" time during the summer or move timepieces ahead to "fast" time—so that an hour of daylight can be moved from morning to evening.

If, as is now planned, there's to be a vote on the subject next November, a substantial majority on either side will probably determine the city's course hereafter, although anything other than statewide application would do little more than relieve such uncertainty as now exists.

When council voted in March—6 to 3—to continue on Eastern standard time through this summer it was thought that the issue had been settled, but here it is, up again. If the vote this time turns out to be 5 to 4 the decision of Mayor Vaughn as to approval or veto of the measure will provide an added point of interest.

'Free Speech' Can Be Noisy Nuisance

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT has declared unconstitutional city ordinances which ban or limit the use of loudspeakers and sound trucks in public. Justice Douglas who delivered the majority opinion said the ordinance in question (Lockport, N. Y.) violated the free speech guarantee of the First Amendment.

Dissenting, Justice Jackson called the majority decision astonishing in that it endangers "the great right of free speech by making it ridiculous and obnoxious."

If we may be permitted to get in on the discussion—under the First Amendment—the point at issue seems to be: Just how loud can free speech become before it constitutes a public nuisance?

To follow the reasoning of Justice Douglas to its logical conclusion, it would appear that anybody, at any time of day or night, could hire a sound truck and go blaring his way through residential districts, past churches where services are being held, in front of schools where classes are being conducted, and even within range of hospitals where the sick are certainly entitled to quiet.

This, the justice might protest, is "reductio ad absurdum." But is it any more absurd than the reasoning of Mr. Douglas and the court majority? The ruling would protect only the noisemaker. It does nothing to protect the rights of those who do not wish to listen. And certainly there is inherently implied in the right of free speech the right of free listening. The founding fathers hardly meant that just because we have the right to say what we please we can force anyone or everyone to listen if they do not care to.

Perhaps the indiscriminate use of loudspeakers and sound trucks can be curbed by prosecution for disturbing the peace. Surely some way should be found to protect the rights of the listener as well as those of the speaker.

Garbage-Dumping Is Filthy Practice

NEED FOR continuance of adult education is seen in the frequency of complaints made about dumping of garbage along country roads and even in parts of the city where offenders believe they are unobserved.

A peculiar phase of this filthy practice is that it appears to be done mostly by people who can afford an automobile in which they convey garbage and rubbish from their own premises to dump somewhere else, but who feel that they can't afford the nominal cost of having garbage and rubbish removed and disposed of in a sanitary way.

Recent arrest of two garbage-dumpers, with fines assessed, may serve as warning that this practice is being discouraged, and co-operation of citizens in disclosing the identity of culprits will also prove beneficial.

Again passing the rounds, a Nebraska rural weekly quotes a local figure: "Thank God I can once more face the world an honest man. The last of my debts are outlawed."

Important, if true, is Harry Wade's report that a barfly became so interested in television that he forgot the drink habit.

What Some Other People Are Saying

Field Marshall JAN CHRISTIAN SMUTS: "The Union of South Africa will not leave the British commonwealth—not for a moment. Go to bed and sleep nights with the knowledge that nothing will happen."

* * *

JAMES C. PETRILLO, president of the American Federation of Musicians: "There is no more free labor movement in this country. The anti-labor legislation has been enacted to break organized labor. We're shackled. We're back to the injunction days."

* * *

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL: "Our international affairs regarding a number of matters are either in such a delicate state of negotiation or in complete stalemate. We are inclined, I think, to be extremists, blowing hot and cold."

Tough Going for the Modern Prospector.

DeWitt Mackenzie's Column

Moral Rehabilitation Is Pressing Need

THERE is a growing mass of opinion in many countries that no real world recovery can be achieved unless it is founded on moral rehabilitation.

During my travels abroad since the War I have found both statesmen and the general public reaching for new moral support. Churches and religious organizations have been swinging into action to meet the crisis.

That isn't strange when you stop to consider the widespread moral destruction wrought by the conflict. Some of it was deliberate, for Hitler undertook to kill moral values so he could more easily persuade his people to follow him in his barbaric aggression.

Many European countries still are struggling in the immoral morass he created. And, quietly but persistently, bolshevism continues the anti-religious crusade on the premise that religion is the "dope of the masses" and renders them less pliable under aggressive totalitarian dictatorship.

Therefore many observers find great encouragement in the world assembly being held in California to celebrate the tenth anniversary of Moral Re-Armament. Attending the assembly are political, industrial and labor leaders from some 24 countries, including representatives from the crucial areas of Europe and the Far East. Dr. Frank Buchman, the Pennsylvania clergyman who founded M.R.A., set the conference in motion with a world-wide broadcast in which he referred to the scope of MRA thus:

"Moral re-armament is the good road of an ideology inspired by God upon which all can unite. Catholic, Jew and Protestant, Hindu, Moslem, Buddhist and Confucianist—all find they can travel along this road together."

And Paul G. Hoffman, European recovery program administrator, further interpreted the movement in a telegram saying in part:

"You are giving the world the ideological counterpart of the Marshall Plan."

* * *

Religion In Action.

SO THE assembly has got under way, to devise means of meeting a crisis which A. R. K. MacKenzie, member of the British delegation to the United Nations, sums up like this:

"Without an inspired ideology democracy flounders before the advancing tide of totalitarianism, and economic and military aid fail of themselves to turn the tide of alien materialistic ideas."

In the language of the layman, MRA is "practical religion." That is, it calls on the individual to put into practice on week days what he hears taught from the pulpit on Sundays, and not leave his good intentions behind him in the church. It is non-sectarian.

Dr. Buchman has trained some 1,000 specialists, both men and women, in this ideology and they devote their whole time to the work throughout the world. In addition innumerable groups of adherents to MRA have been formed in 52 countries. There are headquarters in many cities but the chief ones are in London, Caux (Switzerland), New York, Mackinac Island, and Los Angeles.

The efficacy of MRA was emphasized in startling manner just after the war when allied military authorities discovered in Berlin a secret German report dealing with MRA. I was in Europe at the time and had access to the contents of what was an amazing document.

This report analyzed the operations of MRA under leadership of Dr. Buchman and warned that it was an instrument of Christianity, dangerous to nazism. Directives for the suppression of MRA in Germany and occupied countries were issued on the strength of this report.

But Hitler failed, and today one of the representatives at the Los Angeles assembly is Dr. Edwin Stein, minister of education for Hessen, who is responsible for the re-education of 13,000,000 Germans. Recently he declared:

"We (the Germans) have tried to make democracy a reality, but have never succeeded. Now our job is to build a God-inspired democracy in Germany . . . I have seen the way to do this through moral re-armament. It will only be through a change of heart."

Looking Back

Twenty Years Ago Today

Saturday, June 9, 1928.

Degree of master of arts was conferred by Wittenberg college on Miss Florence Welty, former Mansfield resident who went to India as a missionary.

Mrs. William Dow, lifelong resident of Mansfield, died at her home, 564 Park avenue west.

Irving E. Brown, of Nashua, N. H., was selected to direct playgrounds activities for summer.

Mrs Philip Koerper, 82, died at her home, 11 Washington avenue.

Birth report: Son to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stevick, 31 East Fourth street.

Miss Dolly Lenard and Martin Jacobs were married at Methodist parsonage in Hayesville.

Mrs Charles H Culp, 77, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs William Dress, 94 Lida street.

Daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dowds, 152 Reba avenue.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Ford's theater, in Washington, which had been remodeled into government offices, collapsed on June 9, 1893, killing 21 persons and injuring 50.

Dave Boone Says:

I SEE where somebody in Nebraska presented President Truman with a pair of cowboy spurs. Well, the proof that this is not a non-political trip is now in. He not only took the spurs but greeted an Indian chief on the presidential train.

* * *

I don't quite get the idea of the spurs, unless it's a broad hint that Harry had better look on this campaign as a rodeo all the way and behave accordingly.

* * *

At that, Harry might win a lot of support if he would get into complete cowboy costume, chew gum and twist a lariat while talking informally. The American people are pushovers for that kind of an act. And we haven't had it since Will Rogers.

The Nation Today

Disagree On Draft Law

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Congress finally is considering a law to draft men into the armed forces for peacetime service.

The Senate has started debate on it. The House is expected to do so shortly.

If there's going to be a draft law this year, both houses have to work pretty fast because Congress plans to quit June 19.

If there is a law, who'll be drafted? Right now the talk is of drafting men between 19 and 26. None of this is certain at this point.

Keep this in mind as you read the stories coming out of Congress on the draft:

Even if Congress passes a draft law, there's a chance it won't mean drafting any men this year.

This may happen:

Congress may pass a draft law, set up all the machinery for it, and then say:

"We've passed a draft law. But it is only a law on the books and is not to go into effect—meaning no one is to be drafted—unless and until the President says so.

"So, although we've set up all the machinery for the draft, passing the law doesn't start it. The President will have to do that, if he sees fit."

In that way Congress would put the whole load on the President for starting the draft.

To put it another way: Congress would be leaving it up to the President to decide whether a draft is really necessary.

There are plenty of people in Congress who argue against passing any draft bill at all.

* * *

EACH HOUSE is considering a slightly different bill. One bill was put together by the House armed services committee, the other by the Senate armed services committee.

Both bills are the result of a lot of work, soul-searching and mind-changing by both committees.

Last year, for instance, and this year, too, both committees were considering bills for compulsory military training, not a regular draft.

(Compulsory military training would take in youths—say 18 to 22—but a draft would take in those older men, too, for regular service.)

Then this year President Truman stepped in. The world was jittery. He said he needed a draft to build up our armed services—just in case.

Without going into details—because Congress may make changes before all is finishd—here, briefly, is what the bills would do:

The Senate—

All men, 18 to 26, would have to register. Men 18 to 19 could volunteer for one year's military training, but not outside the United States.

And men 19 to 26 could be drafted for two years' service.

The House—

All men, 18 to 26, would have to register. But only men 19 to 26 could be drafted. They'd be drafted for two years.

Under both bills most veterans would be exempted.

Both Houses are almost certain to wind up passing different bills. If that happens, then . . .

They'll have to get together and agree on one bill. All that takes time.

So it will be late this month before you'll know the full score on a draft law.

Housing Bill Stymied By GOP Leaders

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Here is how carefully Republican leaders in the House of Representatives watched the housing bill in order to keep it bottled up in Wolcott's banking and currency committee.

To get it out of committee, Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democrat of California, was pushing a discharge petition which would force the committee to discharge the bill. Walking over to the Speaker's table last week, G. O. P. Congressman Les Arends of Illinois checked over the list of housing-bill signers, then whispered to G. O. P. Leader Halleck of Indiana.

Together they beckoned to G. O. P. Congressman Boggs of Delaware, asked why he had signed the housing petition. Boggs protested that he hadn't signed. Arends had made a mistake. It was Boggs of Louisiana, a Democrat, who had signed.

All of which illustrates how the Republican leadership gave categorical orders to Republican congressmen not to be for housing—despite the fact that one of the pillars of the party, Senator Taft, pushed the bill through the Senate.

Truman Merry-Go-Round.

SECRET SERVICE has placed a double guard around the Truman train at each stop because of White House troubles with the railroad unions. They recall that during the 1920 rail strike, Woodrow Wilson was subjected to much embarrassment during a speaking tour when striking switchmen uncoupled his private car, letting the rest of the train pull out of the station without him. . . . The President has with him a draft of the Democratic national committee's new $2.50 political handbook, "The Power of the People," by Senator McGrath. . . . The 30 Truman "extemporaneous" speeches, including a kicker line for local audiences were largely written in advance. Truman studies them between stops, sometimes alters them when he gets on his feet. . . . At Gary, Indiana, for instance, Truman's attack on Congress was inspired by Democratic Congressman Ray Madden of Indiana. Before introducing Truman to his huge labor audience, Madden told him: "This crowd is for you, but don't pull any punches—and if you've got anything to say about Congress, lay it on the line." As a result, Truman, who had planned to make a short five-minute talk in Gary, spoke for 20 minutes in a ripping attack on Congress for doing nothing about the cost of living. . . . Just before he left Washington, the President installed four old-fashioned rocking chairs on his new balcony. They are located in the southwest corner of the balcony behind a shady elm tree where they can't be seen from the street.

No Army-Navy Unification.

THE GREATEST argument in favor of Army-Navy unification was pooling of supplies. It was estimated that the taxpayers could be saved a lot of money if the Army and Navy bought their supplies together instead of bidding against each other.

However, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, supposedly a businessman, hasn't even accomplished this—despite the fact that he knew from recent war experiences how great this waste was.

If the armed services kept a single Sears-Roebuck type of catalogue of their supplies, it would bring about great saving.

Back when he was still secretary of the navy, Forrestal, himself, directed the Navy to prepare a single system of cataloging. But he later ignored his own directive, and has done nothing more about it since taking over as secretary of defense.

The waste that has resulted from this lack of uniformity is astronomical. For example, $30,000,000 worth of tubes were purchased by the Army in 1942—enough to last for ten years. Yet the following week another order was placed for $60,000,000 worth of tubes—because the Army had to stock different types. As a result, Army warehouses overflowed with tubes that varied only slightly from each other, maybe no more than a prong spaced differently.

Yet, even this overflow was multiplied a hundredfold by duplication of stock numbers. Normally, the manufacturer's number would be assigned to an article; so if 20 different manufacturers produced the same article, 20 different numbers would be assigned and scattered through a dozen unrelated catalogues.

The Army Signal Corps discovered this duplication, and assigned 400 technical personnel to straighten out the records. After a three-month analysis, they were able to eliminate 63,000 duplicate items out of 220,000—a reduction of almost 30 per cent.

* * *

Red Tape.

IT WAS also found that 8,500 different types of bearings were handled by the Navy during the war, yet the Navy had 264,000 different types in its records. In other words, the assignment of duplicate numbers had magnified the paper work 30 times.

Even more serious, many installations were forced to shut down temporarily for lack of spare parts, although the parts were discovered later under different numbers.

This happened to one of the powerful radar sets in Panama during the spring of 1942 when the canal was in constant danger of Jap attack. To the horror of the Army, it discovered that the replacement part was not in stock. A hurried telephone call was put through to Washington, and the missing part was ordered flown to Panama at once.

Meanwhile, the stock officer, searching through his warehouses, discovered eight bins full of the identical article he had sent to Washington for. But they were all stocked under different numbers.

Traveling With Truman

By THOMAS L. STOKES

ABOARD President Truman's Special Train—Soon after the start of this trip across the country—in Chicago—a youngster who had waited outside the hotel where President Truman was staying was rewarded finally by a sight of the chief executive. He dashed around the corner, breathless, and blurted out to his father and mother standing there:

"I seen him in person—I seen him in person!"

He pronounced "person" the way Al Smith, who came up from the sidewalks of New York, pronounced it—and somewhat the same way, too, with slight modification, that they pronounce it, for example in some parts of the South, say in Atlanta, Ga.

"What did he look like?" his father asked.

"He looked like Roosevelt," the boy replied.

He doesn't, and he isn't. But the late president was, of course, the only previous president this youngster of the streets has ever known. And the transference of image came naturally. Mr. Roosevelt was president. Now Mr. Truman is president.

But the boy came closer in a way than he knew. For the voice of Harry Truman on this trip is figuratively the voice of Roosevelt, even if he is, in a manner of speaking and with no offense intended, a Roosevelt in sheep's clothing.

He is pleading again for the same things for America—for better housing, for expanded social security, for better health and educational facilities, for increased pensions for the aged, for a higher minimum wage standard and, to fulfill our new responsibilities in the world, for continuation of the reciprocal tariff program and sufficient appropriations for the European Recovery Program, now both in serious danger.

* * *

In Simple Language.

AND IN doing this, he keeps up a constant drum-fire on the 80th Congress, now hurrying along in a stumbling fashion to its end in Washington without doing many of these things.

His indictment is in simple and forthright language in frequent back platform speeches to the crowds which gather to see this man, their President, for the first time.

For the first time, too, most of these people are hearing the story of the 80th congress. For he is telling it in simple serial form, and it has been hard—as always—for most people to follow the intricacies of Congress from a distance. This is a personal story—from personal experience.

As his predecessor used to do, he raises up enemies and symbols for them—the National Association of Manufacturers and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, whom he depicted as pulling the strings for the Republican Congress in a speech to a crowd in shirt sleeves and cotton dresses with babies at Gary, Ind., the steel town.

And "the man who has money," whom he described as the only one able today to buy the necessities of life at present prices. And "special interests" again encamped in Washington. And, like his predecessor and like Henry Wallace, too—he dignifies the "little man" whose rights, he said at Chicago, "are just as important as the rights of the big man."

And he belittles the fears conjured up these days about the communist bogey, as did FDR, knowing, as did FDR, who and what are behind this fright technique.

He is forceful and direct as he talks to the people. But, where FDR was magnetic and commanding and drew them up to him in continuous waves of excitement, Harry Truman gives them the comfortable feeling of a fellow human being.

This is no man in a chariot of fire, but the friendly drummer from the big city.

In any of the crowds which gather about the back platform, you can pick out several men who look like Harry Truman. With a little touch here and there from a theatrical make-up artist, the man in the crowd could step up and become in physical appearance the man on the back of the train. And, if called on to talk, he would say the things that Harry Truman says in much the same way, and with the same pleasing grin.

One Man's Opinion

—By WALTER KIERNAN

THE FEELING is "The Voice of America" never will catch on until it starts giving away refrigerators for answering the telephone.

* * *

But I can't quite see Secretary Marshall phoning Moscow to ask "Are you ready and willing to play?"

* * *

Still we have "Mystery Tune," "Mystery Voice" and "Mystery Quotation" contests running. . . . There's no reason why "Mystery Policies" couldn't buy listeners abroad with a big-enough give-away.

* * *

The reason Congress is so sore about "The Voice of America" is that Congress thought IT was.

* * *

And there seems to be doubt as to whether the program has any rating. . . . No one is quite sure whether it's Hooper or Blooper.

* * *

Britain handles these things much better. . . . No program goes to the outside world that hasn't already bored the home folks.

Geography and Politics.

After the 1950 census the Pacific coast states will have greatly increased weight in congress and the electoral college. We may expect to be reminded more often that the United States is a Pacific as well as an Atlantic power and that we are closest to Russia in the Pacific, not the Atlantic, basin.

There is sure to come a demand that our foreign policy be more closely attuned to our geography.

Even in Britain there is a feeling that European factors may be emphasized unduly in her foreign policy. The London Daily Express says: "The more Britain concentrates her efforts and resources in the building up of Western Europe, the less will she have to develop her colonial empire. There is no possibility of giving adequate attention to both projects at once."—Akron Beacon Journal.

Haunting Memories

By CALVIN A. BYERS

OH, TO BE among sheltering mountains when June is here! To sit upon some mossy stone and watch a clear crystal stream splash over a slippery rock—to observe translucent spring trout play and hide in some pool made rich with rainbow colors from the misty spray!

Trailing branches of birch bark quiver and move reluctantly upon the brimming stream.

The whole mountain side is flaming with laurel and rhododendron. Spicy pines and spruces and low teaberry flowers are pungent memories.

In flowery June, when we climbed laboriously to the summit of the ridge, and stood in close companionship—as those do, who have used their breath and their muscles for comradely achievement—we were amazed at the tiny houses and barns of all our neighbors.

Then through a spyglass, we brought them nearer and felt the closeness of green waving fields of wheat, and grass, the faint hint of clover bloom, and the spice of all the mountain.

Through the glasses we saw the Pennsylvania railroad trains glide up and down the famous Horseshoe Curve, the drive rods reflecting the sunlight. We looked far out across the land and counted three glittering millponds, with white painted flour mills at the open end. Woodbury Mill dam, Keagey's and Waterside woolen mills—the many spires of these three villages. These mills were operated by men whom my parents knew.

Oh, to be back upon familiar trails again—in June. I'd try to find again the solitary bloom of lady's slipper that I saw, one year, atop Bedford mountain. I'd stand for long moments and admire the arbutus that never fails to grow and bloom on mountain land. I'd follow Maple Run up into the glens and lose myself in the joys of earlier times.

The beauteous Cove will be always mine, so long as God gives me strength and memory. As a child I wandered through its tangled woods and deep mountain glens wherever fond nature and my fancy led. The strange whispering of the mighty trees, the echoes of waterfalls, the vastness and the silence of the mountains haunted my boyish hours like a passion.

June will always make me homesick.

Walter Lippmann Speaks

Slash In ERP Funds Called Dangerous

Insofar as the damage done by Speaker Martin and Mr Taber can be repaired at all, it can be repaired only at Philadelphia For the best that the Senate can do in the next two weeks is to restore the funds which the Republicans who control the House, abetted by the Democrats who chose to be absent have refused to appropriate but even if Senator Vandenberg and his colleagues are entirely successful in this, the European Recovery Program will still have been struck a paralyzing blow

The action of the House has shown that within the Republican party organization the domnating bosses do not accept, and are determined to reverse, the line of foreign policy represented by Vandenberg Dewey, Stassen, Warren and even Taft.

The action of the House shows also that President Truman has lost all leadership and influence over the bulk of the Democrats For without the defection of the Democrats, it would not have been possible for Speaker Martin to carry out the coup

The objective of the coup is not "economy" Much more than a billion dollars is at stake The objective of the coup is the control of the Republican party and of the next administration The carefully engineered and ruthlessly executed action in the House last week was the preliminary phase of a larger plan, which will be attempted at Philadelphia—a plan to defeat the new postwar Republican leaders, to prevent the reconstruction of the party, to make a record and to write a platform and to nominate a ticket which could fit only a Martin, a Bricker, or conceivably Taft.

The Republican bosses who are conducting this campaign are not animated primarily by isolationist convictions but the knowledge that they can retain their political power only if they can recommit the party to the isolationist position with which they have so long been identified

For that reason a mere restoration of the funds, worked out by compromise, will not settle the real issue It can be settled only if the candidates nominated at Philadelphia, and the platform on which they and the candidates for Senator and Representatives are to run, represent clearly the line of policy which Vandenberg, Dewey and Stassen are identified For only then will this country and the world have any reasonable assurance that next year Martin and Taber will not abolish the program which this year they have injured so seriously

REP. JOHN TABER . . . His policy on aid fund called dangerous.

DECISIONS GRAVE

The gravity of the decisions which will be made at the Philadelphia convention can hardly be exaggerated For there is every prospect that the Republicans will win the election If they are to win it with their party led or dominated by Speaker Martin and his associates, this country can not and will not play a leading and constructive role in recovery and in world settlement An administration led or dominated by the men who ran wild in the House last Friday evening will be not a national government but a clearing house for special interests, pressure groups, and lobbyists

If the National Republicans are defeated at Philadelphia, a crisis of enormous depth and scope will develop all over the world

The only hope of arresting and mastering this crisis will lie in a recognition by President Truman that he must step aside in order to lead what would then become a bipartisan movement to draft Eisenhower.

Let us hope that no such desperate expedient as that will be necessary For after 16 years the country needs a Republican administration and not the four years of excitement and confusion which would almost surely result from a draft, an improvised coalition, and the substitution of personal government. But if the Republicans at Philadelphia prove to be incapable of offering the country responsible national party government, then desperate expedients will be necessary

In any event, though the European Recovery Program is saved, though the Republicans rise to the occasion at Philadelphia, we are and shall be involved in a rapid and exceedingly complex development in the international situation The action of the House is bound, I venture to think, to accelerate and precipitate developments which would occur anyway —but more slowly and in more manageable form

The developments turn upon the complicated and reciprocal relations between the Soviet peace offensive on the one hand and, on the other, the great difficulties of the British position at home and in the commonwealth and empire, the German crisis which is destined to become a Franco-German, indeed a European crisis, and on the deterioration of the Truman administration

POSITION PRECARIOUS

It is not possible to discern and define clearly the shape of these developments But it is evident that the financial position of Britain, even with full ERP aid, is precarious, and that events like those which have happened in South Africa the failure of the Arab league policy and the vulnerability of the sterling area will call for acts of statesmanship in London and in Washington for which neither is at the moment prepared

Moreover, the German policy to which Great Britain and this country have committed themselves, though designed to solve the German problem, is almost certain to make it more difficult to solve and to undermine rather than to consolidate the favorable developments of the past few months in western Europe

It is a great pity that there was not enough wisdom in high places in Washington and London to understand that with the American elections in progress, with the continuity of American policy not yet assured, and with Britain beset by all her difficulties, this was the time to temporize on the German problem, not the time to precipitate a European crisis over Germany.

It makes one think of a statement which I have been told is in an old document of one of the Swiss cantons, that the affairs of the world are governed by the confusion of man and by the providence of God

Councilmen Hike Own Pay

CLEVELAND —(INS)— Cleveland city councilmen have joined the growing ranks of workers seeking a pay hike

The council voted itself a $1 000-a-year raise by a vote of 31 2 A veto by Mayor Thomas A Burke is not expected in view of the heavy vote in favor of the measure

Under city charter provisions, however, the raise if finally approved, will not go into effect the term in which it is voted Hence the increase will take effect Jan 1 1950, and boost the council members' pay to $4,000 annually

CHILDREN'S FAIR TO BE PRESENTED HERE JULY 7

SOMETHING new and different will be presented by members of Beta Kappa Tau sorority on Wednesday evening, July 7. At that time a Children's Fair will be staged at the parking lot on the corner of Mulberry street and West Fourth street, and will be open to all children and their parents.

This unusual festival is being given to raise money for movie equipment for the Richland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, which is the project of the sorority. If successful the group plan to make it an annual fair.

Clowns, concessions, refreshments and various kinds of rides will be part of the entertainment in store for youngsters of all ages.

Mrs. Ernest Yoakum is general chairman and is being assisted in her preparations by Mrs. Gerald Davidson, publicity, Mrs. Harold Heston, concessions, and Mrs. Harold Schnittke, refreshments.

The sorority is working in cooperation with Kamen, city recreation director.

New officers of the B'nai Jacob Sisterhood and officers of last year's board will convene Thursday for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs Leonard Hurwitz, 90 Blymyer avenue, at 1:30 o'clock. Plans will be discussed for the coming season.

CHANGE MEETING

The Delta Sigma Zeta Sorority will meet Thursday instead of tonight as scheduled. It will be held at the home of Miss Barbara Bowles, 131 Glenwood boulevard.

Doctor Pleased With 24½ Pounds Lost By Lima Lady

"I gained weight after my children were born," writes Mrs J. W Statler, 728 S Union St., Lima, Ohio, "and after taking Rennel I lost 24½ lbs. It did not interfere with the care my Doctor was giving me, in fact he is pleased with the results for I can eat regular meals now."

Hundreds of others have gotten similar relief from the social and physical discomfort of being overweight. Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel—no starvation diet—no printed diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product. Insist on and obtain genuine Rennel. —Adv.

Mansfielders To Leave for Girls' State

Arrangements have been completed by the American Legion auxiliary here for the three Mansfield girls selected from the city's high schools to attend Buckeye Girls' State June 20 through 27 at Capital University in Columbus.

The representatives are Miss Frances Wojcik, Mansfield Senior high school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wojcik, 1088 Fleming Falls road; Miss Marilyn Kyle, St. Peter's Catholic high school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kyle, 115 South Diamond street, and Miss Dorothy Estep, Madison high school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Estep, Piper road.

The girls were selected by the teachers and principals of their schools on the basis of leadership ability, character and scholarship. Musical talent and athletic ability also were considered in the selections.

The purpose of Buckeye Girls' State, which is limited to 350 girls, is "to educate our women in the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship." The meeting gives the young women opportunities to learn the problems of government with special emphasis upon the contributions women make to the welfare of the city, county, state and nation.

Special lectures will be given for the girls and the public is invited to attend any of the sessions. Tuesday night, June 22, the Girls' State officers will be installed and a reception will follow. Friends of the conferees are urged to attend these affairs.

Shower Fetes Miss Berges

Miss Katherine Berges was honored with a bridal shower Tuesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Theresa Berges, 376 Wayne street. Miss Berges's matron of honor, Mrs. A. W. Wille, Chicago, was the hostess for the party.

Fifteen guests were present and made a bride's book. A corsage of pink, yellow and green mums was presented to the honoree.

A buffet style luncheon was served to the guests from a table centered with pink, yellow, and green mums. Streamers of matching colors extended from the centerpiece to a small flower attached at the end. Miss Berges received her gifts from under an umbrella attached to colored streamers. Mrs. A. W Holland presided at the serving table.

Miss Berges is the bride-elect of Donald Moore. The wedding will take place June 19 at the First English Lutheran church. It is to be a formal open ceremony with the Rev. Carveth Mitchell officiating.

Members of St Peter's Sewing Circle will meet Thursday for an all-day session at the K. of C. home. Mrs. R. E. Imhoff will be the hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jerome Hanley, Mrs J. M. Ehalt, Mrs. James Wigton and Mrs. William Clay.

Mrs. Crownover Feted At Party

Mrs Leland Crownover, nee Wanda Tipper, was honored recently with a miscellaneous shower given at Johns Park pavilion. Mrs. Obed Crownover, Mrs Walter Lee Mapes jr. and Mrs E. C. Faught were hostesses.

Twenty-two guests were in attendance and enjoyed an evening of games. Prizes were awarded to Miss Gladys Hershey and Mrs. Jean Flockenzier, who presented them to the honoree. At a late hour a luncheon was served. The honored guest received many lovely gifts from her friends.

Mrs. S M. Noah of Poteau, Okla., grandmother of the honoree, was the out-of-town guest present.

Mansfield's representatives to Buckeye Girls' State June 20 through 27 at Capital university in Columbus are pictured here as they discuss plans for the week. They are, left to right, Miss Frances Wojcik, Mansfield Senior high school; Miss Marilyn Kyle, St. Peter's Catholic high school, and Miss Dorothy Estep, Madison high.

Mansfield Man Takes Crestline Girl As Bride In Church Rite

THE Calvary Evangelical and Reformed church, Crestline, was the scene of the double ring ceremony solemnized June 6 for Miss Lorretta Minich and Charles Kochensparger. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minich of 509 East Main street, Crestline, and Mr. Kochensparger's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Kochensparger, 333 Ohio street.

Rev. W. L. Margard performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the couple at 4:30 p. m. Beauty baskets of Shasta daisies, peonies, iris and roses decorated the altar.

Miss Minich chose for her wedding a grey street-length dress, with draped neckline, tight-fitted bodice and full-swing skirt. With this she wore an orchid corsage.

Attending the couple were the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ruhl Mrs. Ruhl wore a pink street dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Mrs Minich, mother of the bride, wore a navy print dress and Mrs. Kochensparger wore a black print dress. Both had black accessories and corsages of red roses.

Following the ceremony dinner was served to twenty guests at the Stiffler Tea Rooms and a reception at the home of the bride's parents Sunday evening.

The table was centered with a three-tier cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom, over which hung white bells tied with pink and white ribbon from the chandelier.

After a motor trip through Michigan the couple will reside in their newly-furnished home at 312 West Bucyrus street, Crestline. For traveling, the bride wore an aqua butcher linen bolero style suit.

The bride is a graduate of Crestline High school and Mansfield Business Training school and is employed in the office of the Tracy and Avery company, Mansfield.

The bridegroom attended Harding High school in Marion, served four years in the U. S. Army with Company K, 142nd Infantry, 36th Texas Division and spent two and one-half years in the European theatre. He is now employed in the office of the Tracy and Avery company in Mansfield.

Zeta Rho Has Installation

Zeta Rho chapter, Delta Theta Tau sorority, met Tuesday night for its first June business session in the clubroom.

Mrs Ralph Hanno, a past president of the chapter, presided for the installation of the new officers. They include Mrs. Thomas Scott, president; Mrs James McConnell, vice- president; Mrs. Robert Walter, recording secretary; Miss Maureen Beal, corresponding secretary; Miss Jean Kelly, treasurer; Mrs Lyle Ernsberger, historian, Mrs Robert Boyd, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Richard Porch, pledge mistress, and Miss Margaret Fieldler, press correspondent.

Mrs. Thomas Wright, retiring president, conducted the business meeting. Plans were completed for giving the proceeds from the Navy Band Concert to the Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Delta Theta Tau national convention will be July 14 through 18 at Cincinnati and Mrs. Scott was elected delegate to the meeting and Miss Beal, alternate. Several other members of Zeta Rho chapter also will attend.

The next social meeting of the chapter will be June 22, the place to be announced later.

Miss Heldenbrand Wed to Berlyn Davis In Church Rite

MISS Martha Louise Heldenbrand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Heldenbrand, 33 Reba avenue, became the bride of Berlyn Donald Davis, 153 West Sixth street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, Loudonville, on June 1. The nuptial vows were exchanged at 7 p. m. at the Nazarene church with Rev. John Randolph of Knightstown, Ind., officiating. Rev. A. H. Perry assisted.

Miss Hazel Perry played the program of nuptial music and Curtice L. Powell was the soloist.

The ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with two beauty baskets of mixed flowers, palms, ferns and two seven branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her brother, Clarence L. Heldenbrand, the bride wore a street length dress of pink crepe with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Her only attendant was Miss Ruth Heldenbrand, sister of the bride, who was attired in an aqua street length dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Heldenbrand wore a black and white floral print with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Davis was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Serving as ushers were Mark E Moore of Fort Recovery, Ohio, and David Duffey of Mansfield. Harold Mattox, close friend of the couple, was best man.

At 8:30 p. m. a reception was held at Liberty Park pavilion with 70 guests in attendance. The tables were decorated with pink and blue appointments and colorful bouquets. A large four tiered wedding cake was served to the guests.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for a trip through the south. For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories. After June 10 they will be at home on West Third street.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Madison high school and is employed at the Swan Cleaners. Mr. Davis, a graduate of Loudonville high school, is employed by the Central Fruit and Grocery company.

Guests were in attendance from Phoenix, Ariz., Loudonville and Fort Recovery, Ohio.

Piano Recital To Be Given By Miss Harry

Miss Marianne Harry will present a piano recital at the First Evangelical United Brethren church, 83 Park avenue east, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Harry graduated this year from Mansfield Senior High school. She started her music career under Mrs Emmett Hershey of Pavonia seven years ago and also studied with the late Wilbur E. Lindsey. Mrs. R V. Hoover is her present teacher.

Miss Harry will play "O Thou Sublime! Sweet Evening Star!" Lizst; "Prelude in C Minor," Rachmaninoff, "Country Gardens," Grainger; "Sextette," Leschetizky; "Moonlight Sonata," Beethoven; "Prelude Dramatique," Ketelbey; "Menuet," Paderewsky; "Old Folks at Home," Holst; "Tarantelle," Heller, and "La Cascade des Roses," Ascher.

Mrs William J. Friend, contralto, will assist her with Mrs. Hoover accompanying her at the piano. She will sing "Roses of Picardy," Wood; "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," Seitz; "At Dawning," Cadman; "Just A-Wearyin' for You," Bond; "A Little Pink Rose," Bond; "Lazy Bones," Mercer and Carmichael; and "Sylvia," Speaks.

Miss Harry, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Ralph DeMoss, 152 East First street, plans to enter Ashland college this fall.

A Variety of Ideas May Be Used For Engagement Bridal Showers

AN ENGAGEMENT party or shower can be lots of fun for the planners. In their "Complete Book of Showers and Engagement Parties" (Garden City Publishing Co.), Jo-Ann Leeming and Margaret Gleeson have come up with the following batch of suggestions:

At a luncheon, dinner or tea with her close friends an engaged girl can make the announcement by:

Using little cardboard rabbit placecard favors. Attached by ribbon to the rabbit is a card bearing the words "Pull my ear and I'll squeal." One of the rabbit's ears is cut from his head and glued to a small white paper heart on which the announcement is written. Some guest wishing to hear the rabbit squeal, pulls the ear and out it comes bringing the secret with it. . . .

Small pieces of paper worded "In a nutshell, Mary Green and Jim Jones are engaged to be married," can be placed between the two halves of a walnut shell. These can be banded together with ribbon. . . .

A match box placed at each place is opened to reveal a single match around which is wrapped a piece of paper which when unrolled contains the words "A match has been made—announcing the engagement of Helen to Richard Roe."

When you accept a shower invitation, you automatically agree to bring a gift. It need not be expensive, but it should be something useful.

Kitchen shower invitations may be sent out as cutouts of coffeepots, cooky canisters, kettles, rolling pins or other utensils — made to fit in regular correspondence envelopes.

A good way to present the gifts which consist of anything for the kitchen, at a shower of this kind, is to put them in a big Jack Horner pie pan, suggest the authors of the shower book. The pan, which is a large dishpan or washtub, is covered with cardboard or paper secured to the pan

At a linen shower the gifts may be presented in a pillowcase or tied to a clothes drier.

Bathroom shower gifts can be placed in a big wicker hamper or an unpainted chest of drawers (such as people use in the bathroom to hold linens, etc.)

There are lots of other showers that can be given including: Lingerie; hosiery, boudoir (includes brushes, combs, cosmetics, etc.); pantry: (paper napkins, place mats, salt and pepper shakers, jams, jellies, spices, delicacies such as caviar or anchovies); glass and plastics; books, phonograph records; garden (seeds, bulbs, plants, gardening books, tools, baskets, watering cans, gardening gloves, hats, sunglasses, umbrellas, chairs); picnic: (includes folding grills, cooking forks and knives, picnic basket, cotton or paper tablecloths, etc); cleanup: (feather dusters, silver-polishing outfit, soaps, dishcloths, dish towels, dish mops, dust caps, flowered aprons); travel: (fitted bag, writing case, traveling slippers, traveling clock, pajamas, satin lingerie holders, shoe board, folding phonograph case, bed pillows); paper, box: (makeup box, glove box, shoe box with drawers for shoes, silver cigarette box, china boxes, leather stationary box); handkerchief; wishing well: (like a miscellaneous shower, anything you care to bring).

Cover Girl Jackie Coplan proudly exhibits dresses, blouses, undies and hosiery she dyed at home with new all-fabric dye, which enabled her to disregard nature of material since the dye works on all popular types of fabric, including "Celanese" and nylon. She had but to choose from 50 colors and dip articles in dye-bath, employing color remover first, when necessary. Several dime boxes of dye and color remover, dyeing vessels, a wooden stick for stirring and heated water were the only equipment. No boiling was needed. Months of extra wear, as well as new color-beauty, were added this way.

Jewelry OK For Brides

Wedding fashion authorities here have decreed that jewelry today is "de rigueur" with bridal gowns.

Newest gowns in the traditional ivory satin, but with the trend to severely high necklines in the Oriental motif, are particularly suited as backgrounds for "fine palladium or platinum jewelry," bridal consultants are telling their clients. Gowns today are simple, far less lavish than last year, and now definitely require the accent of a sparkling jewel, it is pointed out.

'A fine brooch may be worn at the shoulder. A diamond spray clipped to a necklace also adds a perfect finish to a gown. However, prospective brides should see a bridal consultant for advice on the type of jewelry that fits the individual perfectly, that provides the right finish for whatever gown she chooses."

Hindus and Buddhists often share the same gods and festivals.

Horoscope

For Thursday, June 10

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

AN adventurous enterprising and thrilling day could find culmination in some rather exciting and dynamic situation or crisis. The astral indications are for a very positive invitation to "live dangerously" with all objectives and aims partaking of a free, lavish, reckless and improvident urge in business, personal and physical outlay of the forces and faculties. The energies being highly stimulated, and the personal equation keyed to the emotional, it might be easy to be carried into excess, extravagance and ultimate repentance. There are excellent returns for keeping the brakes on.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are advised that there are many indications of a pleasant, profitable and adventurous year, with all faculties, forces and initiative keyed to high enterprise and fine creative expression. While there are sound and practical factors and aspirations, yet an indomitable urge to reckless ventures, excesses, and emotional impulses could prove ruinous and devastating. Properly curbed, there is splendid promise for ingenuity, skills, energies and enterprise, to a dynamic degree and with much pleasure and profit on the side.

A child born on this day is endowed with great energy, initiative and versatility, but a rampant urge for outlets of high pressure and tensions might prove its detriment.

Taft Doubts Completion By June 19

Committee Favors Longer Session

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Sen. Robert A. Taft, (R-Ohio), has revealed that the Republican leadership now "seriously doubts" that Congress can quit for the year on June 19.

Taft told reporters Tuesday after a Senate policy committee meeting that about a dozen major items still are pending on the Senate calendar.

And he added that he will discuss with the House leadership the question of Congress coming back after the Republican convention which will meet in Philadelphia the week of June 21.

Taft said that Republican policy committee members "rather favored" returning to Washington in the two-week interval between the Republican and Democratic conventions, but that some differing opinions also were heard.

The policy leaders decided that after the Senate passes the draft bill, it should take up the Vandenberg resolution to strengthen the United Nations and to promise eventual U. S. support for mutual defense pacts.

Taft said that after the U. N. resolution, the bill to extend the reciprocal trade agreements program for one year would be debated.

The only other measure definitely assigned for action was the long-range farm program.

But Taft told reporters there are "so many things" that the GOP leadership does not wish to drop that the idea of returning to Washington is being given most serious consideration.

Heretofore the leadership had planned to quit on June 19 for the year. This date falls just two days before the Republican convention opens and members generally were anxious to quit for good then.

Leg Lost In Work Mishap

BUCYRUS — His right leg severely mangled below the knee when he was pulled beneath a rototiller, Cecil Spaid, 60, underwent an amputation at City hospital yesterday afternoon.

The accident occurred while Spaid, a laborer for Norton Greenhouse, was working on a compost pile.

He had stepped off the tractor to release sod from the tines of the rototiller when his boot was drawn under the machinery. He was carried over a four-foot embankment before coming to a halt.

His cries attracted neighbors. They summoned a physician who applied a tourniquet. The weight of the machinery had held back circulation in the injured leg and was probably responsible for saving his life. He was believed to have been held prisoner under the machine for approximately 15 minutes before his cries were heard.

'Hams' Test Worth In Emergency

Amateur Operators to Hold Field Days

The Intercity Radio club here will participate Saturday and Sunday in the 12th annual field day of the American Radio Relay league as "hams" throughout the nation demonstrate their skills under emergency conditions.

Beginning at 4 p. m. Saturday and continuing until Sunday at 4 p. m., enthusiasts everywhere will communicate with each other independent of commercial power lines or permanent antenna.

The Mansfield club will set up its unit five miles north of the city on State Route 545. It will be powered by a 3,000-watt generator loaned by Montgomery Ward and company.

Apparatus is designed for a maximum of simplicity and portability and operations simulate, as nearly as possible, actual emergency conditions The nation-wide program will prepare amateurs for the role of furnishing emergency communications in event of earthquakes, tornadoes, floods, forest fires, and other disasters

At some time during the period, Adam Holzmiller, member of the club, will send a radio message to the elected ARRL field official for this area, reporting details of his station location and equipment.

This and other contacts will give the amateur operators contest points Names of winners will be listed in the national organization's publication, "QST"

The Intercity club has been active in amateur radio here since 1927

State IOOF to Build Hospital

The Odd Fellows of Ohio have completed plans for a new convalescent hospital to be built at their home in Springfield, area lodge officials announced today.

The campaign for funds for the project is rapidly taking form and every member of the order in the state has been asked to participate

Approximate cost of this new unit is $250,000 The Odd Fellows will be the first order in Ohio with such a facility for the use of its members, lodge spokesmen said.

The present home at Springfield was dedicated in October, 1898, and has served the membership for 50 years Thirty years ago a new hospital was built but today it is insufficient in size to care for the need of the many aged members who are residents in the home.

Newspaper Man's Plan to Avoid National Affairs Not Practical

NEW YORK—Fred Tisdale has bought an interest in the Times, a weekly published at New Milford, Conn. In a comfortable old phrase with rockers on it, he is settling down in the beautiful Yankee country to spend the rest of his life as a small-town editor. Mr. T. is a real professional journalist in the finest sense of the word.

He was born in West Tennessee, at a time when the hants of General Nathan Bedford Forrest still rode in the moonlight in the shrouds of the original Ku Klux Klan, landed in Kansas City busted, at a tender age, wrote and drew pictures for the Kansas City Star, and played the ground tour of the tramp newspaperman.

This included the New Orleans states, the Evening Sun in Baltimore, something called the Telegram in Portland, Ore., that I can't say I ever heard of, and the China Press in Shanghai.

★

On the China Press he covered the police court and drew pictures to go with his copy. One of his stories dealt with a Chinese fellow charged with attempting to commit suicide with a brick. The charge was not elaborated on the blotter and Mr. T. nearly drove himself and his readers crazy speculating whether he tossed the brick in the air and tried to get under it, or put it on the ground and dived or dove (vote for one) on it.

They had to go to press before the court got around to the defendant and Mr. Tisdale lost interest next day and therefore never did find out in what manner the defendant had tried to end it all by means of a brick. Does it matter now?

Mr. Tisdale's Clarion Call in his first editorial says he isn't going to try to make a "smart" city newspaper of the New Milford Times and would leave global problems to the editorial writers of the great metropolitan dailies.

"We do not presume to believe," said he, "that any ponderous pronouncement in the New Milford paper is going to soften the attitude of Joseph Stalin or put an end to lynchings in the south."

Well, excusing that word "ponderous" and noting an ecexption to that phrase "in the south," the voice of the New Milford Times could be as influential in its own circulation field as that of any daily.

After all, those metropolitan editorials are written, mostly, by the likes of Mr. Tisdale, hired for their ability to express the policy of the person or the soulless corporation who owns the paper.

There is a tradition that practically all of them have one of two ambitions. The first is to settle down to country journalism and the second is to raise chickens.

★

If we get any honest discussion of the questions which will settle the fate of the United States in the next few years—say four years—and may do so for us as a free people, we will get it from the non-metropolitan papers..

Mr. Tisdale says "after traveling all over the world we settled in New Milford because we like it better"—but that his editorial purview is bounded by the township line. I expect to see him breaking out all over nevertheless. New Milford fought at Omaha Beach after all.

Mother Held In Chaining Of Children

Deputy Finds Boy, 7, Girl, 9, At Stairway

BUCYRUS — Mrs. Lilia Collins, 38, was held in the Crawford county jail today under charges of cruel and inhuman treatment to her two children.

Probate Judge Constance Keller said Mrs. Collins chained her son, 7, and her daughter, 9, to the stairway in their home at 1314 Monnett street.

Deputy Sheriff Elwood Jacobs said he discovered the chaining when he went to the home Saturday on other business.

Mrs. Collins, native of Tennessee, told Marvin Adams, superintendent of the Crawford county Children's Home, and Jacobs that she chained the children to keep them home and to prevent them from stealing. Judge Keller said that there was no other evidence of abuse.

Juvenile officers said another son, 11, had been known to have been chained on occasion.

Mrs. Collins was booked as the wife of Charles E. Hilger of the Monnett street address. Judge Keller said that Mrs. Collins had been living with Hilger, who is separated from his wife.

The three children, along with another child of Mrs. Collins, have been taken to the Crawford county Children's Home.

Judge Keller said a hearing will not be held before next Thursday.

Bible Schools Enroll 1,450

An enrollment of 1,450 children, with the total still growing, was reported today for the Daily Vacation Bible schools.

Mrs. Charles Ray, director, said that number of children was in attendance yesterday. The 17 participating and three cooperating schools have 247 teachers and supervisors.

In addition to the 20 schools affiliated with the Council of Religious Education's annual program, the Grace Brethren church is holding daily Bible classes each day from 9:30 until 11 a. m. with an enrollment of 30 children.

The Open Bible church school, which also was to have opened Monday, has been postponed until Rev. and Mrs. Earl Lee return from a church conference.

The Mansfield Gospel Center has announced plans for a summer school to start July 5.

The intermediate department of the Daily Vacation Bible school, started for the first time last year, has more than doubled the number of students in its classes, Mrs. Ray said.

Mrs. Lovell Rites Set for Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Lovell, 72, 146 South Main street, will be held Thursday at 9:30 a. m. in . Peter's Catholic church. Burial will be in Fredericktown.

Mrs. Lovell died yesterday in a Toledo hospital. She had been ill for several weeks.

Friends may call tonight at the Wolford funeral home.

Four-Day Crusade Set

Gifts Will Aid Hungry Children

A four-day "Crusade for Children" was organized at 4 p. m. yesterday by representatives of welfare agencies, schools, labor, churches, finance, business and the press during a meeting in city hall. Mayor Roy W. Vaughn served as chairman.

Sherman A. Wentz, cashier of the Mansfield Savings and Trust National bank, will serve as treasurer of the event which will be held June 18, 19, 20 and 21.

Voluntary contributions will be sought to aid the undernourished and underclothed children of the United Nations. Twenty-six national and international organizations are participating in the campaign.

It was decided yesterday that there will be no personal solicitation of funds. All gifts are to be on a voluntary basis.

Present at the meeting, besides Mayor Vaughn and Wentz, were Jane Williams, Community Fund; Ralph Chapman, YMCA; Mrs. Olive Pankow, P-TA; Miss Margaret Wheeler, YWCA; Rev. Charles Stoneburner, ministerial association; W. F. McCartney, Richland County CIO council; Stanley Kamen, City Recreation department, and D. K. Woodman, News-Journal.

2 Injured In Traffic

Mrs. Glen C. Whitmore, 34, Mansfield, R. D. 3, is in General hospital today suffering from possible concussion as the result of an automobile accident two miles west of Mansfield Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Whitmore was driving east on U.S. Route 30-N, when her car skidded into the back of a highway grader according to the state highway patrol. She was taken to General hospital for observation. Her condiion was reported today as good.

Glen Swanger of Shiloh, state highway maintenance superintendent in Richland county, was caught between the grader and the Whitmore car but was thrown clear. He escaped with a hand injury which was treated by his family physician.

Inspection Of Cycles Set

The Mansfield YMCA Century Cycle club for boys will meet at the Carpenter school grounds Thursday at 9 a. m.

The boys will bring their bicycles for a mechanical check on their brakes and equipment and instruction on traffic regulations.

The summer cycle program includes swimming, fishing, boating and camp-outs.

Louis Bromfield has extended an invitation to the club to visit Malabar farm later this month and he has arranged a conducted tour for the members when they arrive.

2 to Attend Convention

Mrs. Bess Augsburger, executive secretary of the Richland county chapter of the American Red Cross, and Jack Sherman, secretary of the Shelby branch, are planning to leave June 17 for San Francisco where they will attend the national convention of Red Cross chapters.

The convention will be held there June 21 to 24, and 5,000 delegates are expected to register for the four-day conference.

Final arrangements for attendance at the convention were made in the monthly board meeting Tuesday afternoon at which Robert Black, vice president, presided in the absence of Frank Elias, chapter chairman.

Auto Stolen

Theft of a 1937 model blue sedan from the Mansfield airport last night was reported to sheriff's deputies by John F. Hughes. He said the car belonged to his mother, Mrs. Edith R. Hughes, 198 South Mulberry street.

27 St. Peter's High Seniors Get Awards

Special honors were awarded by Msgr. R. C. Goebel at the annual class night exercises for graduating seniors held in St. Peter's high school last night.

Twenty-seven of the 53 students who will be graduated Thursday night received awards.

Joseph Peters, valedictorian, received the alumni cup for the highest honors. Marcelle Chelsky, salutatorian, received the first of four honor keys for high average.

Three other honor keys went to Robert Kampf, Eileen Kaiser and Agnes Mlay for first honors during their four years in the St. Peter's high school.

Eleven others each received a gold tassel for their caps, having merited second honors. They were Thomas Reifenberg, Marianne Eichinger, Hiltrude Carrigan, Dolores Powenski, John Speck, Richard Seibert, Marilyn Staub, Dorothy Normant, Helen McDevitt, Valentine Bozymski and Kathleen O'Leary.

ORATORICAL AWARDS

Oratorical awards were given to Robert Kampf, Joseph Peters and Richard Seibert. The Knights of Columbus award was won by Thomas Reifenberg; quill and journalism pins and charter membership in the Quill and Scroll honor society, were granted to Marcelle Chelsky and Marianne Eichinger for outstanding work on the annual and the school paper; progress medal to Richard Dinger; loyalty award to Nick Olivieri; attendance award to Norman Jean Rachel and an award for attendance at Compline, one of the church services, was presented to Agnes Mlay and Norma Jean Rachel.

Scholarships to the College of St. Francis were given to Hilltrude Carrigan and Dolores Powenski.

Rev. John Flynn, pastor of the St. Mary's Catholic church at Antwerp, Ohio, will be the speaker for the annual commencement in the church at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Diplomas will be presented to the 53 graduates, the largest class in the history of St. Peter's High school, by Msgr. Goebel.

St. Peter's schools will close Friday when pupils are given their final grade cards for the year.

Soloist to Stay At Malabar

Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield has invited Marshall Heinbaugh, baritone soloist, to be his guest at Malabar farm while he is in Mansfield for his two-night Mastersingers concert June 21 and 22 in John-Simpson auditorium.

Mastersingers officials said Heinbaugh probably will arrive in Mansfield on Sunday June 20 and remain here until June 23. He will be the honor guest at the customary concert party to be held this year at the Sky club, Tuesday night, June 22. It is hoped that the Bromfields also will be at the party.

Mrs. Marie Porterfield Platt will accompany Heinbaugh for his two groups of songs. In addition, Heinbaugh will sing a production number with the Mastersingers chorus. "One Alone" from Romberg's "The Desert Song" has been chosen as this number.

There are still a few tickets left for the Monday night concert, Dr. F. A. Hoffman said today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Beelman are expected to return to the city today in time to accept the congratulations of friends in Mansfield on Beelman's birthday anniversary. They attended their daughter's graduation ceremonies at Bradford Junior college, Bradford, Mass.

BEELMAN

Beelman was president of the Richland County USO council during the war years and also headed the city ration panel as chairman of the Mansfield War Price and Rationing board.

He came to Mansfield 54 years ago and entered the furniture and undertaking business, leaving that business 30 years ago. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and is interested in Parent-Teacher organizational work. He founded the P-TA at Western Avenue and Woodland schools.

At present he has a real estate office at 79½ North Main street and resides at 674 Brae Burn.

The News-Journal also extends birthday wishes to M. M. "Dutch" Feaman, 616 Park avenue west, who is convalescing at home following a recent operation. His friends are wishing him a speedy recovery so that he may enjoy his favorite hobby, golf.

HOME AGAIN—

Clyde A. VerBeck, Richland county native, is here from Fordyce, Ark., to visit his mother, Mrs. G. VerBeck, and sister, Mrs. Mabel Winans, 244 West Fifth street. He is now a newspaper publisher in Fordyce, and recalls the boyhood experience of having been a Mansfield News carrier in Shelby, with a job on the Shelby Globe as the start that led to choice of a newspaper career.

CLAIMED—

Dog Warden C. H. Hill had another beautiful dog in tow today—but not for long. A red Irish setter, missing from his Arch street home for several days was found yesterday by Hill. Today the handsome canine was held on a chain in the county commissioners' office, awaiting the arrival of his master. But the dog didn't seem to mind his new quarters. He just found a sunny spot on the floor, stretched out and snoozed.

Chatter . . . .

Mrs. Lynn Maxwell, Lexington, returning from a three-week visit in St. Petersburg, Fla., where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Bricker and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Bricker, former Mansfielders. Mrs. Maxwell attended graduation exercises for her daughter, Marilyn, at Florida Southern college, Lakeland. Miss Maxwell will teach next year in the commercial department at Sebring, Fla., high school.

Ex-Governor's Aunt Passes

Mrs. Georgia Bradford, widow of Orrin D. Bradford, and a former resident of this area, died yesterday at her home, 975 Oak street, Columbus, following a brief illness.

Surviving are three nephews, Wilbur M. Brucker, Detroit, former governor of Michigan; Robert B. Brucker of Saginaw, Mich., and Blumell Brucker of Meridian, Mich., and several grand-nieces and grand-nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home in Columbus Saturday at 11 a. m. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. David N. Roller.

Further information on services may be obtained at the Finefrock funeral home.

Tax Collection Up to $130,566

A little more than 12 per cent of Richland county's 1947 second-half taxes have been collected, Charles Payne, county treasurer, announced today.

So far, $130,566 has been paid on the $1,012,000 collection due to be completed July 20.

Payne said this year's receipts are running about $16,000 ahead of the 1946 collection for a similar period.

Serves Out Fine

Sam R. Pace, 20, of 121 East Fourth street, was taken to the county jail yesterday to serve out a $10 fine and costs assessed in municipal court last March on an unsafe operation charge.

Examiner Lauds Tonney's Office

Two findings for a total of $14,703 and commendation for various city officials featured a state examiner's report on file today in the city auditor's office.

Highlights of the report included:

1. A finding that the Richland county treasury owed the city of Mansfield $14,550 as the city's portion of state matching funds for poor relief administration costs from 1940 to 1946.

2. A finding that the city paid the R. E. Moorhead company $153.65 more than the $1,198.27 contract price for a police cruiser.

3. Special commendation for the manner in which various departments kept their records, including the health department during a part of the time Dr. Fred O. Tonney was health director.

DIDN'T GET SHARE

The state examiner, reporting to the state bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices on his examination of records for the period from October 1945 to May 1947, found that the city did not get its proper portion of the state matching funds for relief administration costs and that the $14,550 should be deposited in favor of the city.

The state matches 50 percent of money appropriated by both the city and county for poor relief. The entire administration of relief is handled by the county. Apparently, the relief office deposited both city and county shares of state matching funds (administrative costs thereof) in the county treasury.

The finding against the Moorhead company was in line with an attorney general's ruling that public offices may not enter into contracts which permit of a change in the contract price should there be a change in the price of an article between the time the contract was signed and the time the article was delivered.

SOLICITOR GAVE O. K.

Former City Solicitor Leslie K. Wagner had ruled that when the price on a car rose between the time of the contract signing and delivery the additional $153 should be paid.

In finding for the city, the examiner stated: "It is a well-established principle of law that a contractor doing business with a municipal corporation would be held responsible to adhere strictly to the terms of the original contract. We are holding that the increased costs are illegal."

The report also found that the city was owed $99.55 by Denville Tackett. It said he was found guilty in municipal court of reckless driving when he broke a fire hydrant. He was fined $100 and costs, but the fine was suspended provided he pay the city for damages. The hydrant was fixed, but due to an oversight, the man was not billed, the report declared.

EFFICIENCY CITED

The report commended several departments for their efficient operation.

It stated that "the records of the health department would indicate that extreme care has been put forth in their preparation." Dr. Tonney headed the health department throughout most of 1947.

Of the auditor's office, the report stated: "Careful audit of Paul Kelley's reports . . . and the manner in which the business affairs of the office are conducted . . . (show) Kelley is fully aware of his responsibilities and that he puts forth every effort to safeguard the interests of the corporation."

The report commended the garbage department for "conscientious effort put forth by the service director, the superintendent and office employes in order to obtain economical and efficient operation.

The municipal court records were cited for being kept in a neat and intelligent manner. Paul Ritchie was praised for the "diligent performance of his duties."

The sewer and water departments also were given high recommendations.

Mansfielder Dies At 64

Charles G. Contracieri, 64, of 306 Superior street, died at White Cross hospital, Columbus, early today following a three-month illness.

Mr. Contracieri was born in Italy, Oct. 24, 1883, coming to America as a boy. He was a retired employe of the Pennsylvania railroad. He was a member of St. Peter's Catholic church and the Pennsylvania Federation of Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes.

Surviving are his wife, Anna; two sons, Charles J. of Mansfield and Samuel of Chicago; two daughters, Mrs. John Daum of Columbus and Miss Anna Contracieri, at home; two brothers, James and Nunzio of Mansfield and three grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be held at St. Peter's church Saturday at 9:30 a. m., in charge of Msgr. R. C. Goebel. Burial will be in the Mansfield Catholic cemetery. Arrangements are in charge of the Wappner funeral home, where friends may call.

Takes Post In California

Charles T. Alexander former division manager here for the Investors Syndicate of Minneapolis, Minn., left with his family this morning for Fresno, Calif., where he will take over a similar post for the company.

Alexander has been in Mansfield as division manager for the past seven years. He will be succeeded here by E. L. Horn, former district manager at Elkhart, Ind., who will continue the offices at 308 Walpark building.

In honor of Alexander, employes from the 11-county division and their wives met at the Mansfield-Leland hotel last night for a dinner and party. Employes presented Alexander, as a final business gift, a total of $100,000 in business and a personal farewell gift.

The Alexander family lived at 92 Massa avenue.
